Introduction

The Liturgy Committee was mandated by the Faith and Order Board to revise the text of Daily Prayer, first authorised 1990, and revised 1998 and 2006. This, the most thorough revision to date, takes into account not only developments in the English language, of which sensitivity to gendered language is perhaps the most conspicuous, but also increased use of this material during the pandemic and subsequently, not least in virtual, often lay-led, gatherings.

The revised texts presented here incorporate the Revised (Inclusive Language) Liturgical Psalter of the Anglican Church of Canada, for which permission has been granted. The current texts of the English Language Liturgical Consultation (ELLC) are used for the Gospel canticles; others are from The Daily Office SSF, by permission of the European Province of the Society of St Francis.

To make the material more accessible, seasonal provision is now headed accordingly. Morning and Evening Prayer for each season, and for each week on ordinary time, are grouped together, for ease of navigation. Latin titles of canticles have been relegated to parentheses, and English titles are used.

Recitation of the Psalter now follows a sixty-day cycle, with those unpalatable to contemporary Christian sensibilities consciously included as integral to holy Scripture and reflecting authentic human instincts and emotions, which as a Church we need to continue acknowledging. Major festivals have been appointed proper psalms, and tables for these and for the cycle are included.

A Psalm Cycle for the Revision of Daily Prayer

The SEC Daily Prayer uses a psalm cycle that is based on seasonal repeating patterns with some specific ‘interruptions’ for particular Propers. The coverage is very uneven and in some seasons rather repetitive. The 1929 Scottish Prayer Book (SPB) takes a different approach giving a day number and morning or evening against each Psalm in day order, providing for each Psalm to be read once a month (a 30-Day cycle). In seeking a straight-forward alternative in any revision, there are a rather limited number of alternatives. A recent survey of lay-people and clergy using Daily Prayer or the SPB in groups on-line over the course of the pandemic, indicates that the 30 day cycle in the SPB is felt to be a bit ‘Psalm-heavy’ with between 40 and 60 verses on each occasion. The number of verses in the Daily Prayer offices is about half that of the SPB, but its main drawback is that if a group meets on a specific day (or days) each week, they tend to read the same Psalms frequently and only cover a very limited range of Psalmody. This latter issue does not occur with a 30-Day cycle, because a particular day in the cycle occurs on a different day each month.

In order to deal with the issues raised, what is proposed is a 60-Day cycle, where each Psalm is read every two months, but with a limited number of ‘interruptions’ for specific Propers, where guarding against an ‘unfortunate’ choice of Psalmody in the basic cycle is considered important.

The proposed 60-Day cycle is given in the table below, which is largely in Psalm number order but with adjustments to even out the number of verses to be read at a particular Office. Day 31, in any of the six months that have 31 days, offers a free choice of Psalmody (as in the SPB 30-Day cycle).

On Day 8 of even months, the Psalms at Morning Prayer are 95 and 96. Psalm 95 is of course the Venite, which is an option at Morning Prayer on any day, and users may wish to use an alternative opening such as that for the season/week rather than the Venite as the opening and say Psalm 95 as part of the Psalmody.

The second table gives specific provision for a limited number of (13) principal Feasts/Festivals.

Canticles

Come, let us sing (Venite)

- 1 Come, let us sing to the Lord; *
let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation.
- 2 Let us come before the presence of the Lord with thanksgiving *
and raise a loud shout to God with psalms.
- 3 For you, O Lord, are a great God, *
and a great sovereign above all gods.
- 4 In your hand are the caverns of the earth, *
and the heights of the hills are yours also.
- 5 The sea is yours, for you made it, *
and your hands have moulded the dry land.
- 6 Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, *
and kneel before the Lord our Maker.
- 7 For you are our God, and we are the people of your pasture and the sheep of your hand. *
Oh, that today we would hearken to your voice!
- 8 "Harden not your hearts, *
as your forebears did in the wilderness.
- 9 They put me to the test, *
though they had seen my works.
- 10 So I swore in my wrath, *
'They shall not enter into my rest.'"

Glory to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit.

or

Glory to God, Creator, Christ, and Holy Spirit.

as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be. Amen.

Song of Zechariah (Benedictus)

- 1 Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, *
who has come to his people and set them free.
- 2 The Lord has raised up for us a mighty Saviour,*
born of the house of his servant David.
- 3 Through the holy prophets, God promised of old*
to save us from our enemies, from the hands of all who hate us,
- 4 to show mercy to our forebears, *
and to remember his holy covenant.
- 5 This was the oath God swore to our father Abraham:* to set us free from the hands of our enemies,
- 6 free to worship him without fear,*
holy and righteous before him, all the days of our life.
- 7 And you, child, shall be called the prophet of the Most High,*
for you will go before the Lord to prepare the way,
- 8 to give his people knowledge of salvation*
by the forgiveness of their sins.
- 9 In the tender compassion of our God*
the dawn from on high shall break upon us,
- 10 to shine on those who dwell in darkness and the shadow of death,*
and to guide our feet into the way of peace.

Glory ...

Song of Mary (Magnificat)

- 1 My soul proclaims the greatness of the Lord,*
my spirit rejoices in God my Saviour,
- 2 who has looked with favour on his lowly servant;*
from this day all generations will call me blessed.
- 3 The Almighty has done great things for me,*
and holy is his name.
- 4 God has mercy on those who fear him,*
from generation to generation.
- 5 The Lord has shown strength with his arm*
and scattered the proud in their conceit,
- 6 casting down the mighty from their thrones*
and lifting up the lowly.
- 7 God has filled the hungry with good things*
and sent the rich away empty.
- 8 He has come to the aid of his servant Israel,*
to remember the promise of mercy,
- 9 the promise made to our forebears,*
to Abraham and his children for ever.

Penitential Introduction to Morning and Evening Prayer

O Lord, all we long for is before you;
and our deep sighing is not hidden from you.

But we acknowledge our wickedness;
we are filled with sorrow at our sin.

Be pleased O Lord, to deliver us;

O Lord, make haste to help us.

May the Lord forgive what we have done,
help us to amend our lives,
and direct what we shall be,
through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

O give thanks to the Lord who is always gracious;
and whose mercy endures for ever.

O Lord our God we cried to you;
and you have made us whole.

Glory to the Father and to the Son, and to the Holy Spirit;

or

Glory to God, Source of all Being, Eternal Word, and Holy Spirit;
as it was in the beginning, is now,
and shall be for ever. Amen.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Do not bring us to the time of trial,
but deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and for ever. Amen.

Week of Lent 2

Song of the Word of God (Quaerite Dominum) Isaiah 55. 6-11

1. Seek the Lord while the Lord may be found, call upon God who is near;
2. Let the wicked abandon their ways,*
and the unrighteous their thoughts;
3. Return to the Lord, who will have mercy;*
to our God, who will richly pardon.
4. 'For my thoughts are not your thoughts,*
neither are your ways my ways', says the Lord.
5. 'For as the heavens are higher than the earth,*
as the rain and the snow come down from above,*
and return not again but water the earth,
6. 'Bringing forth life and giving growth,*
seed for sowing and bread to eat,
7. 'So is my word that goes forth from my mouth;*
it will not return to me fruitless,
8. 'But it will accomplish that which I purpose,*
and succeed in the task I gave it.'

Song of Humility Hosea 6. 1-6

1. Come, let us return to the Lord *
who has torn us and will heal us.

2. God has stricken us*
and will bind up our wounds.
3. After two days, God will revive us and on the third day will raise us up, that we may live in God's presence.
4. Let us humble ourselves;*
let us strive to know our God,
5. Whose justice dawns like the morning star;*
its dawning is as sure as the sunrise.
6. God's justice will come to us like the showers,*
like the spring rains that water the earth.
7. 'O Ephraim, how shall I deal with you?*'
How shall I deal with you, O Jacob?
8. 'Your love for me is like the morning mist,*
like the dew that goes early away.
9. 'Therefore, I have spoken to them by the prophets,*
and my judgement goes forth as the light.

Song of Manasseh Manasseh 1a, 4, 6-7, 9a, 9c, 11-12, 14b, 15b

1. O Lord Almighty and God of our forebears,* you who made heaven and earth in all their glory:

2. All things tremble with awe at your presence,*
before your great and mighty power.
3. Immeasurable and unsearchable is your promise of mercy,*
for you are God, Most High.
4. You are full of compassion and very merciful,*
and you relent at human suffering.
5. O God, according to your great goodness,* you have promised repentance and forgiveness to those who have sinned against you.
6. The sins I have committed against you,*
are more in number than the sands of the sea.
7. I am not worthy to look up and see the heavens,*
because of my many sins and iniquities.
8. And now my heart bows before you,*
imploring your kindness upon me.
9. Unworthy as I am, I know that you will save me,*
according to your great mercy.
10. For all the host of heaven sings your praise,*
and your glory is for ever and ever.

4. The steadfast love of the Lord never ceases;*
God's mercies never come to an end.
5. They are new every morning;*
great is God's faithfulness.
6. 'The Lord is my portion', says my soul:*

Week of Lent 2

(from Romans 5)

1. Now that we have been justified through faith,*
we are at peace with God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
2. And so we exult in our hope of the splendour of God* and we even exult in the sufferings we endure.
3. For our hope is not in vain,* because God's love has flooded our inmost hearts through the Holy Spirit which has been given to us.
4. When we were still powerless, Christ died for the ungodly;*
he died for us while we were still sinners, and so God's love for us is revealed.

that God is light, in whom there is no darkness at all.
2. If we say that we have fellowship with God while we walk in darkness,*
we lie and do not do what is true.
3. But if we walk in the light as God is in the light,*
we have fellowship with one another.
4. For the blood of Jesus, the Son of God,*
cleanses us from all our sins.
5. If we say that we have no sin,*
we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us.
6. If we confess our sins,*
the One who is faithful and just will forgive us and cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Week of Lent 4

(Song of Anselm)

2. Often you weep over our sins and our pride,* tenderly you draw us from hatred and judgement.
3. You comfort us in sorrow and bind up our wounds,*
in sickness you nurse us and with pure milk you feed us.
4. Jesus, by your dying, we are born to new life;*
by your anguish and labour we come forth in joy.
5. Despair turns to hope through your sweet goodness;*
through your gentleness, we find comfort in fear.
6. Your warmth gives life to the dead,*
your touch makes sinners righteous.
7. Lord Jesus, in your mercy, heal us;*
in your love and tenderness, remake us.
8. In your compassion, bring grace and forgiveness,*
for the beauty of heaven, may your love prepare us.

we look to you to save and help us.

2. By your cross and your life laid down, you set your people free:*
- we look to you to save and help us.
3. When they were ready to perish, you saved your disciples:*
- we look to you to come to our help.
4. Make yourself known as our saviour and mighty deliverer;*
- save and help us that we may praise you.
5. Come now and dwell with us, Lord Christ Jesus;*
- hear our prayer and be with us always.
6. And when you come in your glory,*
- make us to be one with you and to share the life of your kingdom.

Holy Week

(from 1 Peter 2)

1. Christ our Lord suffered for us, leaving us an example, * that we should follow in his steps.
2. He committed no sin, no guile was found on his lips; *
when he was reviled he did not revile in return.
3. When he suffered he did not threaten, *
but trusted in God who judges justly.
4. He himself bore our sins in his body on the tree, *
that we might die to sin and live to righteousness.
5. By his wounds we have been healed; *
for we were straying like sheep,

6. But now we have returned* to the shepherd and guardian of our souls.

Conclusion (Easter Anthems)

1. Christ our passover has been sacrificed for us,* so let us celebrate the feast.
2. Not with the old leaven of corruption and wickedness,*
but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
3. Christ once raised from the dead dies no more; *
death has no more dominion over him.

in living, he lives to God.
5. See yourselves, therefore, as dead to sin*
and alive to God in Jesus Christ our Lord.
6. Christ has been raised from the dead,*

by man has come also the resurrection of the dead.

Opening

This or another suitable opening hymn may be sung.

Before the ending of the day,
Creator of the world, we pray
That you, with steadfast love, would keep Your watch around us while we sleep.

From evil dreams defend our sight,
From fears and terrors of the night;
Tread underfoot our deadly foe
That we no sinful thought may know.

O Father, that we ask be done
Through Jesus Christ, your only Son;

And Holy Spirit, by whose breath
Our souls are raised to life from death.

8. Your anger weighs upon me heavily,*

10. My sight has failed me because of trouble;*

The Psalter

Book One

Psalm 1

1. Happy are they who have not walked in the counsel of the wicked, * nor lingered in the way of sinners, nor sat in the seats of the scornful!
2. Their delight is in the law of the Lord, *
and on this law they meditate day and night.
3. They are like trees planted by streams of water, * bearing fruit in due season, with leaves that do not wither; *
everything they do shall prosper.
4. It is not so with the wicked; *
they are like chaff which the wind blows away.
5. Therefore the wicked shall not stand upright when judgement comes, *
nor the sinner in the council of the righteous.
6. For the Lord knows the way of the righteous, *
but the way of the wicked is doomed.

Psalm 2

1. Why are the nations in an uproar? *
Why do the peoples mutter empty threats?

2. Why do the rulers of the earth rise up in revolt, and the princes plot together, * against the Lord and the Lord's anointed?
3. "Let us break their yoke," they say; *
"let us cast off their bonds from us."
4. The One enthroned in heaven is laughing; *
the Lord has them in derision.
5. Then God speaks to them in wrath, *
and the divine rage fills them with terror.
6. "I myself have set my anointed *
upon my holy hill of Zion."
7. Let me announce the decree of the Lord, * who said to me, "You are my heir; this day have I begotten you.
8. Ask of me, and I will give you the nations for your inheritance *
and the ends of the earth for your possession.
9. You shall crush them with an iron rod * and shatter them like a piece of pottery."
10. And now, you monarchs, be wise; *
be warned, you rulers of the earth.
11. Submit to the Lord with fear, * and bow with trembling before the presence of the Lord;

- 12. lest God be angry and you perish for the divine wrath is quickly kindled. *
Happy are they all who take refuge in God!

Psalm 3

- 1. Lord, how many adversaries I have! *
How many there are who rise up against me!
- 2. How many there are who say to me, *
“There is no help for you in your God.”
- 3. But you, O Lord, are a shield about me; *
you are my glory, the One who lifts up my head.
- 4. I call aloud upon you, O Lord, *
and you answer me from your holy hill.
- 5. I lie down and go to sleep; *
I wake again, because you, O Lord, sustain me.
- 6. I do not fear the multitudes of people * who set themselves against me all around.
- 7. Rise up, O Lord; set me free, O my God; *
surely, you will strike all my enemies across the face,
you will break the teeth of the wicked.
- 8. Deliverance belongs to you, O Lord. *
Your blessing be upon your people!

Psalm 4

1. Answer me when I call, O God, defender of my cause;*
you set me free when I am hard-pressed; have mercy on me and hear my prayer.
2. “You mortals, how long will you dishonour my glory; *
how long will you worship dumb idols and run after false gods?”
3. Know that the Lord does wonders for the faithful * and will hear me when I call.
4. Tremble, then, and do not sin; *
speak to your heart in silence upon your bed.
5. Offer the appointed sacrifices * and put your trust in the Lord.
6. Many are saying, “Oh, that we might see better times!” *
Lift up the light of your countenance upon us,
O Lord.
7. You have put gladness in my heart, *
more than when grain and wine and oil increase.
8. I lie down in peace; at once I fall asleep; *
for only you, Lord, make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 5

1. Give ear to my words, O Lord; *
consider my meditation.
2. Hearken to my cry for help, my Sovereign and my God,*
for I make my prayer to you.
3. In the morning, Lord, you hear my voice; *
early in the morning I make my appeal and watch for
you.
4. For you are not a God who takes pleasure in wickedness, *
and evil cannot dwell with you.
5. Braggarts cannot stand in your sight; *
you hate all those who work wickedness.
6. You destroy those who speak lies; *
the bloodthirsty and deceitful, O Lord, you abhor.
7. But as for me, through the greatness of your mercy I will go into your house; *
I will bow down towards your holy temple in awe of
you.
8. Lead me, O Lord, in your righteousness, because of those who lie in wait for me; *
make your way straight before me.

9. For there is no truth in their mouth; there is destruction in their heart; *
their throat is an open grave; they flatter with their tongue.
10. Declare them guilty, O God; let them fall, because of their schemes. *
Because of their many transgressions cast them out, for they have rebelled against you.
11. But all who take refuge in you will be glad; they will sing out their joy for ever. *
You will shelter them, so that those who love your name may exult in you.
12. For you, O Lord, will bless the righteous; *
you will defend them with your favour as with a shield.

Psalm 6

1. Lord, do not rebuke me in your anger; *
do not punish me in your wrath.
2. Have pity on me, Lord, for I am weak; *
heal me, Lord, for my bones are racked.
3. My spirit shakes with terror; *
how long, O Lord, how long?
4. Turn, O Lord, and deliver me; *
save me for your mercy's sake.
5. For in death no one remembers you; *
and who will give you thanks in the grave?

6. I grow weary because of my groaning; *
every night I drench my bed and flood my couch with tears.
7. My eyes are wasted with grief *
and worn away because of all my enemies.
8. Depart from me, all evildoers, *
for the Lord has heard the sound of my weeping.
9. The Lord has heard my supplication * and accepts my prayer.
10. All my enemies shall be confounded and quake with fear; *
they shall turn back and suddenly be put to shame.

Psalm 7

1. O Lord my God, I take refuge in you; *
save and deliver me from all who pursue me;
2. lest like a lion they tear me in pieces *
and snatch me away with none to deliver me.
3. O Lord my God, if I have done these things; *
if there is any wickedness in my hands,
4. if I have repaid my friend with evil, *
or plundered anyone who without cause is my enemy;
5. then let my enemy pursue and overtake me, *
trample my life into the ground, and lay my honour in the dust.

- 6. Stand up, O Lord, in your wrath; rise up against the fury of my enemies. *

1. O Lord our governor, *
how exalted is your name in all the world
2. Out of the mouths of infants and children *
your majesty is praised above the heavens.
You have set up a stronghold against your adversaries, *
to quell the enemy and the avenger
3. When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers,*
the moon and the stars you have set in their courses,
4. what are mortals that you should be mindful of them,*
their children that you should seek them out?
5. You have made them but little lower than the angels;*
you adorn them with glory and honour;
6. you give them mastery over the works of your hands;*
you put all things under their feet;
7. all sheep and oxen, *
even the wild beasts of the field,
8. the birds of the air, the fish of the sea, *
and all that walks in the paths of the sea.
9. O Lord our governor, *
how exalted is your name in all the world!

Psalm 9

1. I will give thanks to you, O Lord, with my whole heart;*
I will tell of all your marvellous works.

I will sing to your name, O Most High.
3. When my enemies are driven back, *
they will stumble and perish at your presence.
4. For you have maintained my right and my cause; *
you sit upon your throne judging right.
5. You have rebuked the ungodly and destroyed the wicked; *
you have blotted out their name for ever and ever.
6. As for the enemy, they are finished,
in perpetual ruin, *
their cities ploughed under, the memory of them
perished;
7. but you, O Lord, are enthroned for ever; *
you have set up your throne for judgement.
8. It is you who rules the world with righteousness; *
you judge the peoples with equity.

- 14. so that I may tell of all your praises and rejoice in your salvation *
in the gates of the city of Zion.
- 15. The ungodly have fallen into the pit they dug, *
and in the snare they set is their own foot caught.

the wicked are trapped in the works of their own hands.

and also all the peoples that forget you.

hand; *
let them be judged before you.

let the ungodly know they are but mortal.

the covetous curse and revile the Lord.
4. The wicked are so proud that they care not for God; *
their only thought is, "God does not matter."
5. Their ways are devious at all times; your judgements are far above out of their sight; *
they defy all their enemies.
6. They say in their heart, "I shall not be shaken; *
no harm shall happen to me ever."
7. Their mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and oppression; *
under their tongue are mischief and wrong.
8. They lurk in ambush in public squares and in secret places they murder the innocent; *
they spy out the helpless.
9. They lie in wait, like a lion in a covert; they lie in wait to seize upon the lowly; *
they seize the lowly and drag them away in their net.
10. The innocent are broken and humbled before them; *
the helpless fall before their power.

11. They say in their heart, “God has forgotten, * turned aside and will never notice.”
12. Rise up, O Lord; lift up your hand, O God; *
do not forget the afflicted.
13. Why should the wicked revile you? *
Why should they say in their heart, “You do not care”?
14. Surely, you behold trouble and misery; you see it and take it into your own hand. *
The helpless commit themselves to you, for you are the helper of orphans.
15. Break the power of the wicked and evil; *
search out their wickedness until you find none.

the ungodly shall perish from your land.

how then can you say to me, “Fly away like a bird to the hilltop;

2. for see how the wicked bend the bow and fit their arrows to the string, *
to shoot from ambush at the true of heart.
3. When the foundations are being destroyed, *
what can the righteous do?"
4. O Lord, you are in your holy temple and enthroned in heaven. *
Your eyes behold the inhabited world; your piercing eye weighs our worth.
5. You weigh the righteous as well as the wicked, *
but those who delight in violence you abhor.
6. Upon the wicked you shall rain coals of fire and burning sulphur; *
a scorching wind shall be their lot.
7. For you are righteous and delight in righteous deeds,*
and the just shall see your face.

Psalm 12

1. Help me, Lord, for there is no godly one left; *
the faithful have vanished from among us.
2. All speak falsely with their neighbours; *
with a smooth tongue they speak from a double heart.
3. Oh, that the Lord would cut off all smooth tongues, *
and close the lips that utter proud boasts!

4. Those who say, "With our tongue will we prevail; *
our lips are our own; who is lord over us?"
5. "Because the needy are oppressed, and the poor cry
out in misery, *
I will rise up," says the Lord, "and give them the help
they long for."

like silver refined from ore and purified seven times in the fire.

and that which is worthless is highly prized by everyone.

Psalm 13

1. How long, O Lord? Will you forget me for ever? *
How long will you hide your face from me?
2. How long shall I have perplexity in my mind, and grief in my heart, day after day? *
How long shall my enemy triumph over me?
3. Look upon me and answer me, O Lord my God; *
give light to my eyes, lest I sleep in death;
4. lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed over this one," *
and my foes rejoice that I have fallen.

5. But I put my trust in your mercy; *
my heart is joyful because of your saving help.
6. I will sing to the Lord who has dealt with me richly; *
I will praise the name of the Lord Most High.

Psalm 14

1. Fools say in their hearts, "There is no God." *

to see if there is any who is wise, if there is anyone who seeks after God.
3. Every one has proved faithless; all alike have turned bad; *
there is none who does good; no, not one.
4. Have they no knowledge, all those evildoers * who eat up my people like bread and do not call upon the Lord?
5. See how they tremble with fear, *
because God is in the company of the righteous.
6. Their aim is to confound the plans of the afflicted, *
but the Lord is their refuge.

who speak the truth from their heart.
3. There is no guile upon their tongue; they do no evil to a friend; *
they do not heap contempt upon a neighbour.
4. In their sight the wicked are rejected, * but they honour those who fear the Lord.
They have sworn to do no wrong * and do not take back their word.
5. They do not give their money in hope of gain,
nor do they take a bribe against the innocent. *
Those who do these things shall never be overthrown.

Psalm 16

1. Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you; *
I have said to the Lord, "You are my Lord, my good above all other."
2. All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, * upon those who are noble among the people.
3. But those who run after other gods *
shall have their troubles multiplied.

4. Their libations of blood I will not offer, *
nor take the names of their gods upon my lips.
5. O Lord, you are my portion and my cup; *
it is you who uphold my lot.
6. My boundaries enclose a pleasant land; *
indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
7. I will bless the Lord who gives me counsel; *
my heart teaches me, night after night.

because you are at my side I shall not fall.

my body also shall rest in hope.

in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your hand are pleasures for evermore.

cry; *
listen to my prayer, which does not come from lying lips.

let your eyes be fixed on justice.

melt me down; you will find no impurity in me.

I have heeded the words of your lips.
5. My footsteps hold fast to the ways of your law; *
in your paths my feet shall not stumble.
6. I call upon you, O God, for you will answer me; *
incline your ear to me and hear my words.
7. Show me your marvellous loving-kindness, *
O Saviour of those who take refuge at your side from those who rise up against them.
8. Keep me as the apple of your eye; *
hide me under the shadow of your wings,
9. from the wicked who assault me, *
from my deadly enemies who surround me.
10. They have closed their heart to pity, *
and their mouth speaks proud things.
11. They press me hard, now they surround me, *
watching how they may cast me to the ground,
12. like a lion, greedy for its prey, *
and like a young lion lurking in secret places.
13. Arise, O Lord; confront them and bring them down; *
deliver me from the wicked by your sword.

14. Deliver me, O Lord, by your hand from those whose portion in life is this world; whose bellies you fill with treasure, who are well supplied with children and leave their wealth to their little ones.
15. But at my vindication I shall see your face; *
when I awake, I shall be satisfied, beholding your likeness.

you rescued me because you delighted in me.

Part II

because my hands were clean God rewarded me.
21. For I have kept your ways, O Lord *
and have not offended against you, my God;
22. for all your judgements are before my eyes, *
and your decrees I have not put away from me;
23. for I have been blameless with you *
and have kept myself from iniquity;
24. therefore you, O Lord, rewarded me according to my righteous dealing, *
because of the cleanness of my hands in your sight.
25. With the faithful you show yourself faithful, O God; *
with the forthright you show yourself forthright.
26. With the pure you show yourself pure, *
but with the crooked you are wily.

- 27. You will save a lowly people, *
but you will humble the haughty eyes.

my God, you make my darkness bright.
- 29. With you I will break down an enclosure; *
with your help I will scale any wall.

you have cast down my adversaries beneath me.

I trample them like mud in the streets.

you put me at the head of the nations; a people I have not known shall serve me.

O Lord, be my helper.”

I am worn down by the blows of your hand.

11. With rebukes for sin you punish us; like a moth you eat away all that is dear to us; *
truly, everyone is but a puff of wind.
12. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and give ear to my cry; hold not your peace at my tears. *
for I am but a sojourner with you, a wayfarer, as all my ancestors were.
13. Turn your gaze from me, that I may be glad again, * before I go my way and am no more.”

Psalm 40

1. I waited patiently upon the Lord *
who stooped to me and heard my cry.
2. God lifted me out of the desolate pit, out of the mire and clay, * and set my feet on a high cliff and made my footing sure.
3. God put a new song in my mouth, a song of praise to our God; *
many shall see, and stand in awe, and put their trust in the Lord.
4. Happy are they who trust in the Lord! *
they do not resort to evil spirits or turn to false gods.

5. Great things are they that you have done, O Lord my God! how great your wonders and your plans for us! There is none who can be compared with you. *
Oh, that I could make them known and tell them, but they are more than I can count.
6. In sacrifice and offering you take no pleasure *
(you have given me ears to hear you); burnt-offering and sin-offering you have not required.
7. And so I said, "Behold, I come. *
In the roll of the book it is written concerning me:
8. 'I love to do your will, O my God; *
your law is deep within my heart.'"
9. I proclaimed righteousness in the great congregation; *
behold, I did not restrain my lips; and that, O Lord, you know
10. Your righteousness have I not hidden in my heart; I have spoken of your faithfulness and your deliverance; *
I have not concealed your love and faithfulness from
the great congregation.
11. You are the Lord; do not withhold your compassion
from me; *
let your love and your faithfulness keep me safe for ever.

12. For innumerable troubles have crowded upon me; my sins have overtaken me, and I cannot see; * they are more in number than the hairs of my head, and my heart fails me.
13. Be pleased, O Lord, to deliver me; * O Lord, make haste to help me.
14. Let them be ashamed and altogether dismayed who seek after my life to destroy it; * let them draw back and be disgraced who take pleasure in my misfortune.
15. Let those who say "Aha!" and gloat over me be confounded, * because they are ashamed.
16. Let all who seek you rejoice in you and be glad; * let those who love your salvation continually say, "Great is the Lord!"
17. Though I am poor and afflicted, *the Lord will have regard for me.
You are my helper and my deliverer; *do not tarry, O my God.

Psalm 41

1. Happy are they who consider the poor and needy! * The Lord will deliver them in the time of trouble.

2. The Lord preserves them and keeps them alive, so that they may be happy in the land; *
the Lord does not hand them over to the will of their enemies.
3. The Lord sustains them on their sickbed *
and ministers to them in their illness.
4. I said, "Lord, be merciful to me; *
heal me, for I have sinned against you."
5. My enemies are saying wicked things about me, * asking when will I die and my name perish.
6. Even if they come to see me, they speak empty words; *
their heart collects false rumours; they go outside and spread them.
7. All my enemies whisper together about me *
and devise evil against me.
8. They say that a deadly thing has fastened on me; *
that I have taken to my bed and will never get up again.
9. Even my best friend, whom I trusted, who broke bread with me, *
has lifted up the heel and turned against me.
10. But you, O Lord, be merciful to me and raise me up, * and I shall repay them.
11. By this I know you are pleased with me, * that my enemy does not triumph over me.

- 12. In my integrity you hold me fast, *
and shall set me before your face for ever.
- 13. Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, *
from age to age. Amen. Amen.

Book Two

Psalm 42

1. As the deer longs for the water-brooks, *
so longs my soul for you, O God.
2. My soul is athirst for God, athirst for the living God; *
when shall I come to appear before the presence of God?
3. My tears have been my food day and night, * while all day long they say to me, "Where now is your God?"
4. I pour out my soul when I think on these things: how I went with the multitude and led them into the house of God,*
with the voice of praise and thanksgiving, among those who keep holy-day.
5. Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul, and why are you so disquieted within me? Put your trust in God; *
for I will yet give thanks to the Holy One who is the help of my countenance and my God.
6. My soul is heavy within me; *
therefore I will remember you from the land of Jordan, and from the peak of Mizar among the heights of Hermon.

7. One deep calls to another in the noise of your cataracts; *
all your rapids and floods have gone over me.
8. The Lord grants loving-kindness in the daytime; *
in the night season a song of God is with me, a prayer to the God of my life.
9. I will say to the God of my strength, “Why have you forgotten me * and why do I go so heavily while the enemy oppresses me?”
10. While my bones are being broken, my enemies mock me to my face; *
all day long they mock me and say to me, “Where now is your God?”
11. Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul, and why are you so disquieted within me? Put your trust in God; *
for I will yet give thanks to the Holy One who is the help of my countenance and my God.

Psalm 43

1. Give judgement for me, O God, and defend my cause against an ungodly people; *
deliver me from the deceitful and the wicked.

2. For you are the God of my strength; why have you put me from you? *
And why do I go so heavily while the enemy oppresses me?
3. Send out your light and your truth, that they may lead me, *
and bring me to your holy hill and to your dwelling;
4. that I may go to the altar of God, to the God of my joy and gladness; *
and on the harp I will give thanks to you, O God my God.
5. Why are you so full of heaviness, O my soul, and why are you so disquieted within me? Put your trust in God; *
for I will yet give thanks to the Holy One, who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Psalm 44

1. We have heard with our ears, O God, our ancestors have told us, * the deeds you did in their days, in the days of old.
2. How with your hand you drove the peoples out and planted our ancestors in the land; *
how you destroyed nations and made your people flourish.

- 3. For they did not take the land by their sword, nor did their arm win the victory for them; *
but your mighty hand, your arm, and the light of your countenance, because you favoured them.
- 4. You are my Sovereign and my God; *
you command victories for Jacob.
- 5. Through you we pushed back our adversaries; *
through your name we trampled on those who rose up against us.
- 6. For I do not rely on my bow, *
and my sword does not give me the victory.
- 7. Surely, you gave us victory over our adversaries *
and put those who hate us to shame.
- 8. Every day we gloried in God, *
and we will praise your name for ever.
- 9. Nevertheless, you have rejected and humbled us *
and do not go forth with our armies.
- 10 You have made us fall back before our adversary, *
and our enemies have plundered us.
- 11. You have made us like sheep to be eaten *
and have scattered us among the nations.
- 12. You are selling your people for a trifle *
and are making no profit on the sale of them.
- 13. You have made us the scorn of our neighbours, *
a mockery and derision to those around us.

- 14. You have made us a byword among the nations, *
a laughing-stock among the peoples.
- 15. My humiliation is daily before me, *
and shame has covered my face;
- 16. because of the taunts of the mockers and blasphemers, *
because of the enemy and avenger.
- 17. All this has come upon us; *
yet we have not forgotten you, nor have we betrayed
your covenant
- 18. Our heart never turned back, *
nor did our footsteps stray from your path;
- 19. Though you thrust us down into a place of misery, *
and covered us over with deep darkness.
- 20. If we have forgotten the name of our God, *
or stretched out our hands to some strange god,
- 21. will you not find it out? *
For you know the secrets of the heart.
- 22. Indeed, for your sake we are killed all the day long; *
we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.
- 23. Awake, O Lord! why are you sleeping? *
Arise! Do not reject us for ever.
- 24. Why have you hidden your face *
and forgotten our affliction and oppression?

25. We sink down into the dust; *
our body cleaves to the ground.
26. Rise up, and help us, *
and save us, for the sake of your steadfast love.

Psalm 45

1. My heart is stirring with a noble song; let me recite
what I have fashioned for the king; *
my tongue shall be the pen of a skilled writer.
2. You are the fairest of mortals; *
grace flows from your lips, because God has blessed
you for ever.
3. Strap your sword upon your thigh, O mighty warrior, *
in your pride and in your majesty.
4. Ride out and conquer in the cause of truth and for the sake of justice. *
Your mighty hand will show you marvellous things;
5. your arrows are very sharp, O mighty warrior; the peoples are falling at your feet, *
and your enemies are losing heart.
6. Your throne, O God, endures for ever and ever, *
a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of your dominion.
7. You love righteousness and hate iniquity. *
Therefore God, your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your companions.

- 8. All your garments are fragrant with myrrh, aloes, and cassia, *
and the music of strings from ivory palaces makes you glad.
- 9. The daughters of rulers stand among the ladies of the court; *
at your side is the queen, adorned with the gold of Ophir.

forget your people and your father’s house.
- 11. The king will have pleasure in your beauty; *
he is your master; therefore do him honour.
- 12. The people of Tyre are here with a gift; *
the rich among the people seek your favour.”

her gown is cloth-of-gold.
- 14. In embroidered apparel she is brought to her sovereign; *
after her the bridesmaids follow in procession.
- 15. With joy and gladness they are brought, *
and enter into the royal palace.
- 16. “In place of fathers, O king, you shall have sons; *
you shall make them princes over all the earth.

- 17. I will make your name to be remembered from one generation to another; *
therefore nations will praise you for ever and ever.”

Psalm 46

- 1. God is our refuge and strength, *
a very present help in trouble.
- 2. Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved, *
and though the mountains be toppled into the depths of the sea;
- 3. though its waters rage and foam, *
and though the mountains tremble at its tumult.
- 4. There is a river whose streams make glad the city of God, *
the holy habitation of the Most High.
- 5. God is in the midst of this city; it shall not be overthrown; *
God shall help it at the break of day.
- 6. The nations make much ado, and the dominions are shaken; *
God has spoken, and the earth shall melt away.
- 7. The Lord of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.
- 8. Come now and look upon the works of the Lord, *
what awesome things God has done on earth.

9. It is God who makes war to cease in all the world; *
who breaks the bow and shatters the spear, and burns
the shields with fire.
10. “Be still, then, and know that I am God; *
I will be exalted among the nations; I will be exalted in the earth.”
11. The Lord of hosts is with us; *
the God of Jacob is our stronghold.

Psalm 47

shout to God with a cry of joy.
2. For the Lord Most High is to be feared, *

and the nations under our feet;
4. who chooses our inheritance for us, *
the pride of Jacob whom God loves.
5. God has gone up with a shout, *
with the sound of the ram’s-horn.
6. Sing praises to God, sing praises; *
sing praises to our sovereign, sing praises.
7. For God is sovereign of all the earth; *
sing praises with all your skill.

in whose city is the holy hill of God.
2. Beautiful and lofty, the joy of all the earth, is the hill of Zion, *
the very centre of the world and the city of the great sovereign.
3. God is in its citadels *
and is known to be its sure refuge.
4. Behold, the rulers of the earth assembled * and marched forward together.
5. They looked and were astounded; *
they retreated and fled in terror.

they writhed like a woman in childbirth,
7. like ships of the sea *
when the east wind shatters them.

God has established it for ever.
9. We have waited in silence on your loving-kindness, O God, * in the midst of your temple.

your hand is full of justice.

because of your judgements.

count the number of its towers.

who shall be our guide for evermore.

rich and poor together.

- 3. My mouth shall speak of wisdom, *
and my heart shall meditate on understanding.
- 4. I will incline my ear to a proverb *
and set forth my riddle upon the harp.
- 5. Why should I be afraid in evil days, *
when the wickedness of those at my heels surrounds
me,
- 6. the wickedness of those who put their trust in their goods, *
and boast of their great riches?
- 7. We can never ransom ourselves, *
or deliver to God the price of our life;
- 8. for the ransom of our life is so great, *
that we should never have enough to pay it,
- 9. in order to live for ever and ever, *
and never see the grave.
- 10. For we see that the wise die also; like the dull and stupid they perish *
and leave their wealth to those who come after them.
- 11. Their graves shall be their homes for ever, their dwelling places from generation to generation, *
though they call the lands after their own names.
- 12. Even though honoured, they cannot live for ever; *
they are like the beasts that perish.

and the end of those who delight in their own words.

Their form shall waste away, and the land of the dead shall be their home.
- 15. But God will ransom my life *
and will snatch me from the grasp of death.

are like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 50

1. The Lord, the God of gods, has spoken * and has called the earth from the rising of the sun to its setting.
2. Out of Zion, perfect in its beauty, *
God reveals the divine glory.
3. Our God will come and will not keep silence; *
before whom there is a consuming flame, and round
about whom a raging storm.
4. God calls the heavens and the earth from above *
to witness the judgement of this people.
5. “Gather before me my loyal followers, *
those who have made a covenant with me and sealed
it with sacrifice.”
6. Let the heavens declare the rightness of the divine cause; *
for God, God alone, is judge.
7. “Hear, O my people, and I will speak: O Israel, I will bear witness against you; *
for I am God, your God.
8. I do not accuse you because of your sacrifices; *
your offerings are always before me.
9. I will take no bull-calf from your stalls, *
nor he-goats out of your pens;

10. For the beasts of the forest are mine, *
the herds in their thousands upon the hills.
11. I know every bird in the sky, *
and the creatures of the fields are in my sight.
12. If I were hungry, I would not tell you, *
for the whole world is mine and all that is in it.
13. Do you think I eat the flesh of bulls, *
or drink the blood of goats?
14. Offer to God a sacrifice of thanksgiving * and make good your vows to the Most High.
15. Call upon me in the day of trouble; *
I will deliver you, and you shall honour me.”
16. But to the wicked God says: *
“Why do you recite my statutes, and take my covenant upon your lips;
17. since you refuse discipline, *
and toss my words behind your back?
18. When you see a thief, you make that one your friend, *
and you cast in your lot with adulterers.
19. You have loosed your lips for evil, *
and harnessed your tongue to a lie.

- 20. You are always speaking evil of your kin * and slandering your own mother's child.
These things you have done, and I kept still, * and you thought that I am like you."
- 21. "I have made my accusation; *
I have put my case in order before your eyes.
- 22. Consider this well, you who forget God, *
lest I rend you and there be none to deliver you.
- 23. Whoever offers me the sacrifice of thanksgiving honours me; *
but to those who keep in my way will I show the salvation of God."

Psalm 51

- 1. Have mercy on me, O God, according to your loving kindness; *
in your great compassion blot out my offenses.
- 2. Wash me through and through from my wickedness *
and cleanse me from my sin.
- 3. For I know my transgressions, *
and my sin is ever before me.
- 4. Against you only have I sinned * and done what is evil in your sight.
And so you are justified when you speak * and upright in your judgement.

5. Indeed, I have been wicked from my birth, *
a sinner from my mother's womb.
6. For behold, you look for truth deep within me, *
and will make me understand wisdom secretly.
7. Purge me from my sin, and I shall be pure; *
wash me, and I shall be clean indeed.
8. Make me hear of joy and gladness, *
that the body you have broken may rejoice.
9. Hide your face from my sins *
and blot out all my iniquities.
10. Create in me a clean heart, O God, *
and renew a right spirit within me.
11. Cast me not away from your presence * and take not your holy Spirit from me.
12. Give me the joy of your saving help again * and sustain me with your bountiful Spirit.
13. I shall teach your ways to the wicked, *
and sinners shall return to you.
14. Deliver me from death, O God, *
and my tongue shall sing of your righteousness, O God
of my salvation.
15. Open my lips, O Lord, *
and my mouth shall proclaim your praise.
16. Had you desired it, I would have offered sacrifice, *
but you take no delight in burnt-offerings.

17. The sacrifice of God is a troubled spirit; *
a broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.
18. Be favourable and gracious to Zion, *
and rebuild the walls of Jerusalem.
19. Then you will be pleased with the appointed sacrifices, with burnt-offerings and oblations; *
then shall they offer young bullocks upon your altar.

Psalm 52

1. You tyrant, why do you boast of wickedness *
against the godly all day long?
2. You plot ruin; your tongue is like a sharpened razor, *
O worker of deception.
3. You love evil more than good * and lying more than speaking the truth.
4. You love all words that hurt, *
O you deceitful tongue.
5. Oh, that God would demolish you utterly, * topple you, and snatch you from your dwelling, and root you out of the land of the living!
6. The righteous shall see and tremble, *
and they shall laugh at you, saying,
7. “This is the one who did not take God for a refuge, *
but trusted in great wealth and relied upon
wickedness.”

8. But I am like a green olive tree in the house of God; *
I trust in the mercy of God for ever and ever.
9. I will give you thanks for what you have done * and declare the goodness of your name in the presence of the godly.

Psalm 53

1. Fools say in their hearts, "There is no God." *
All are corrupt and commit abominable acts; there is none who does any good.
2. God looks down from heaven upon us all, *
to see if there is any who is wise, if there is anyone who seeks after God.
3. Every one has proved faithless; all alike have turned
bad; *
there is none who does good; no, not one.
4. Have they no knowledge, those evildoers, *
who eat up my people like bread and do not call upon
God?
5. See how greatly they tremble, such trembling as never was; *
for God has scattered the bones of the enemy; they are put to shame, because God has rejected them.

6. Oh, that Israel's deliverance would come out of Zion! *
When God restores the fortune of this people, Jacob will rejoice and Israel be glad.

Psalm 54

1. Save me, O God, by your name; *
in your might, defend my cause.
2. Hear my prayer, O God; *
give ear to the words of my mouth.
3. For the arrogant have risen up against me, and the ruthless have sought my life, *
those who have no regard for God.
4. Behold, God is my helper; *
it is the Lord who sustains my life.
5. Render evil to those who spy on me; *
in your faithfulness, destroy them.
6. I will offer you a freewill sacrifice * and praise your name, O Lord, for it is good.
7. For you have rescued me from every trouble, *
and my eye has seen the ruin of my foes.

Psalm 55

1. Hear my prayer, O God; *
do not hide yourself from my petition.
2. Listen to me and answer me; *
I have no peace, because of my cares.
3. I am shaken by the noise of the enemy *and by the pressure of the wicked;
for they have cast an evil spell upon me *and are set against me in fury.
4. My heart quakes within me, *
and the terrors of death have fallen upon me.
5. Fear and trembling have come over me, *
and horror overwhelms me.
6. And I said, "Oh, that I had wings like a dove! *
I would fly away and be at rest.
7. I would flee to a far-off place *
and make my lodging in the wilderness.
8. I would hasten to escape * from the stormy wind and tempest."
9. Swallow them up, O Lord; confound their speech; *
for I have seen violence and strife in the city.

- 10. Day and night the sentries make their rounds upon its walls, *
but trouble and misery are in the midst of it.
- 11. There is corruption at its heart; *
its streets are never free of oppression and deceit.
- 12. For had it been an adversary who taunted me, then I could have borne it; *
or had it been enemies who vaunted themselves against me, then I could have hidden from them.
- 13. But it was you, someone after my own heart, *
my companion, my own familiar friend.
- 14. We took sweet counsel together, *
and walked with the throng in the house of God.
- 15. Let death come upon them suddenly; let them go down alive into the grave; *
for wickedness is in their dwellings, in their very midst.
- 16. But I will call upon God, *
and the Lord will deliver me.
- 17. In the evening, in the morning, and at noonday, I will complain and lament, *
and the Lord will hear my voice.

- 18. God will bring me safely back from the battle waged against me; *
for there are many who fight me.
- 19. God, who is enthroned of old, will hear me and bring them down; *
they never change; they do not fear God.
- 20. My companions stretched forth their hand against their comrade; *
they have broken their covenant.
- 21. Their speech is softer than butter, but war is in their heart. *
Their words are smoother than oil, but they are drawn swords.
- 22. Cast your burden upon the Lord who will sustain you *
and will never let the righteous stumble.
- 23. For you will bring the bloodthirsty and deceitful down to the pit of destruction, O God. *
They shall not live out half their days, but I will put my trust in you.

Psalm 56

1. Have mercy on me, O God, for my enemies are hounding me; *
all day long they assault and oppress me.
2. They hound me all the day long; *
truly there are many who fight against me, O Most High.
3. Whenever I am afraid, *
I will put my trust in you.
4. In God, whose word I praise, in God I trust and will not be afraid, * for what can flesh do to me?
5. All day long they damage my cause; *
their only thought is to do me evil.
6. They band together; they lie in wait; *
they spy upon my footsteps; because they seek my life.
7. Shall they escape despite their wickedness? *
O God, in your anger, cast down the peoples.
8. You have noted my lamentation; put my tears into your bottle; *
are they not recorded in your book?

9. Whenever I call upon you, my enemies will be put to flight; *
this I know, for you are on my side.
10. In God the Lord, *
whose word I praise,
11. in God I trust and will not be afraid, *
for what can mortals do to me?
12. I am bound by the vow I made to you, O God; *
I will present to you thank-offerings;
13. For you have rescued my soul from death and my feet from stumbling, *
that I may walk before you in the light of the living.

Psalm 57

1. Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful, for I have taken refuge in you; *
in the shadow of your wings will I take refuge until this time of trouble has gone by.
2. I will call upon you, the Most High God, *
the God who maintains my cause.
3. You will send from heaven and save me; you will confound those who trample upon me; *
you will send forth your love and your faithfulness.

4. I lie in the midst of lions that devour the people; *
their teeth are spears and arrows, their tongue a sharp sword.
5. They have laid a net for my feet, and I am bowed low;*
they have dug a pit before me, but have fallen into it themselves.
6. Exalt yourself above the heavens, O God, *
and your glory over all the earth.
7. My heart is firmly fixed, O God, my heart is fixed; *
I will sing and make melody.
8. Wake up, my spirit; awake, lute and harp; *
I myself will waken the dawn.
9. I will confess you among the peoples, O Lord; *
I will sing praise to you among the nations.
10. For your loving-kindness is greater than the heavens,*
and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
11. Exalt yourself above the heavens, O God, *
and your glory over all the earth.

Psalm 58

1. Do you indeed decree righteousness, you rulers? *
Do you judge the peoples with equity?

2. No; you devise evil in your hearts, *
and your hands deal out violence in the land.
3. The wicked are perverse from the womb; *
liars go astray from their birth.
4. They are as venomous as a serpent, *
they are like the deaf adder which stops its ears,
5. which does not heed the voice of the charmer, *
no matter how skillful the charming.
6. O God, break their teeth in their mouths; *
pull the fangs of the young lions, O Lord.
7. Let them vanish like water that runs off; *
let them wither like trodden grass.
8. Let them be like the snail that melts away, *
like a stillborn child that never sees the sun.
9. Before they bear fruit, let them be cut down like a brier; *
like thorns and thistles let them be swept away.
10. The righteous will be glad when they see the vengeance; *
they will bathe their feet in the blood of the wicked.
11. And they will say, "Surely, there is a reward for the righteous; *
surely, there is a God who rules in the earth."

Psalm 59

1. Rescue me from my enemies, O God; *
protect me from those who rise up against me.
2. Rescue me from evildoers *
and save me from those who thirst for my blood.
3. See how they lie in wait for my life, how the mighty gather together against me; *
not for any offence or fault of mine, O Lord.
4. Not because of any guilt of mine they run and prepare themselves for battle. *
Rouse yourself, come to my side, and see;
5. for you, Lord God of hosts, are Israel's God. Awake, and punish all the ungodly; *
show no mercy to those who are faithless and evil.
6. They go to and fro in the evening; *
they snarl like dogs and run about the city.
7. Behold, they boast with their mouths, and taunts are on their lips; *
"For who," they say, "will hear us?"
8. But you, O Lord, you laugh at them; *
you laugh all the ungodly to scorn.
9. My eyes are fixed on you, O my Strength; *
for you, O God, are my stronghold.

- 10. My merciful God comes to meet me *
and will let me look in triumph on my enemies.
- 11. Slay them, O God, lest my people forget; *
send them reeling by your might and put them down,
O Lord our shield.
- 12. For the sins of their mouths, for the words of their lips, for the cursing and lies that they utter, *
let them be caught in their pride.
- 13. Make an end of them in your wrath; make an end of them, and they shall be no more. *
Let everyone know that God rules in Jacob, and to the ends of the earth.
- 14. They go to and fro in the evening; *
they snarl like dogs and run about the city.
- 15. They forage for food, *
and if they are not filled, they howl.
- 16. For my part, I will sing of your strength; *
I will celebrate your love in the morning;
- 17. For you have become my stronghold, a refuge in the day of my trouble. *
To you, O my Strength, will I sing; for you, O God, are my stronghold and my merciful God.

Psalm 60

1. O God, you have cast us off and broken us; *
you have been angry; oh, take us back to you again.

repair the cracks in it, for it totters.
3. You have made your people know hardship; *
you have given us wine that makes us stagger.
4. You have set up a banner for those who fear you, *
to be a refuge from the power of the bow.
5. Save us by your mighty hand and answer us, *
that those who are dear to you may be delivered.
6. You spoke from your holy dwelling and said: *
“I will exult and parcel out Shechem; I will divide the valley of Succoth.
7. Gilead is mine and Manasseh is mine; *
Ephraim is my helmet and Judah my sceptre.
8. Moab is my wash basin, on Edom I throw down my sandal to claim it, *
and over Philistia will I shout in triumph.”
9. Who will lead me into the strong city? *
Who will bring me into Edom?
10. Have you not cast us off, O God? *
you no longer go out, O God, with our armies.
11. Grant us your help against the enemy, *
for vain is the help of mortals.

12. With you we will do valiant deeds, *
and you shall tread our enemies under foot.

Psalm 61

1. Hear my cry, O God, *
and listen to my prayer.
2. I call upon you from the ends of the earth with heaviness in my heart; *
set me upon the rock that is higher than I.
3. For you have been my refuge, *
a strong tower against the enemy.
4. I will dwell in your house for ever; *
I will take refuge under the cover of your wings.
5. For you, O God, have heard my vows; *
you have granted me the heritage of those who fear
your name.
6. Add length of days to the king's life; *
let his years extend over many generations.
7. Let him sit enthroned before you for ever; *
bid love and faithfulness watch over him.
8. So will I always sing the praise of your name, *
and day by day I will fulfill my vows.

Psalm 62

1. For God alone my soul in silence waits; *
from God comes my salvation.
2. God alone is my rock and my salvation, *
my stronghold, so that I shall not be greatly shaken.
3. How long will you assail me to crush me, all of you together, *
as if you were a leaning fence, a toppling wall?
4. They seek only to bring me down from my place of honour; lies are their chief delight.*
They bless with their lips, but in their hearts they curse.
5. For God alone my soul in silence waits; *
truly, my hope is in God.
6. God alone is my rock and my salvation, *
my stronghold, so that I shall not be shaken.
7. In God is my safety and my honour, *
my strong rock and my refuge.
8. Put your trust in God always, O people, * pour out your hearts before the One who is your refuge.
9. Those of high degree are but a fleeting breath, even those of low estate cannot be trusted. *
On the scales they are lighter than a breath, all of them together.

though wealth increase, set not your heart upon it.

for you repay all according to their deeds.

1. O God, you are my God; eagerly I seek you; *
my soul thirsts for you, my flesh faints for you, as in a barren and dry land where there is no water.
2. Therefore I have gazed upon you in your holy place, *
that I might behold your power and your glory.
3. For your loving-kindness is better than life itself; *
my lips shall give you praise.
4. So will I bless you as long as I live * and lift up my hands in your name.
5. My soul is content, as with marrow and fatness, *
and my mouth praises you with joyful lips,
6. when I remember you upon my bed, *
and meditate on you in the night watches.
7. For you have been my helper, *
and under the shadow of your wings I will rejoice.

8. My soul clings to you; *
your mighty hand holds me fast.
9. May those who seek my life to destroy it * go down into the depths of the earth;
10. let them fall upon the edge of the sword, *
and let them be food for jackals.
11. But the king will rejoice in God; all those who swear by God will be glad, *
for the mouth of those who speak lies shall be stopped.

1. Hear my voice, O God, when I complain; *
protect my life from fear of the enemy.
2. Hide me from the conspiracy of the wicked, *
from the mob of evildoers.

and aim their bitter words like arrows,
4. so that they may shoot down the blameless from ambush; *
they shoot without warning and are not afraid.

they plan how they may hide their snares.

6. They say, "Who will see us? Who will find out our crimes? *
We have thought out a perfect plot."
7. The human mind and heart are a mystery; *
but you, O God, will loose an arrow at them, and suddenly they will be wounded.
8. You will make them trip over their tongues, *
and all who see them will shake their heads.
9. Everyone will stand in awe and declare your deeds, O God; *
they will recognize your works.

Because of your great strength your enemies cringe
before you.

sings to you, sings out your name."

how wonderful you are, O God, in your doing toward all people.
6. You turned the sea into dry land, so that they went through the water on foot, *
and there we rejoiced in you.

fire and water; *
but you brought us out into a place of refreshment.

from my mother's womb you have been my strength;*
my praise shall be always of you.
7. I have become a portent to many; *
but you are my refuge and my strength.
8. Let my mouth be full of your praise *
and your glory all the day long.
9. Do not cast me off in my old age; *
forsake me not when my strength fails.
10. For my enemies are talking against me, *
and those who lie in wait for my life take counsel
together.

forsaken; *
because there is no one who will save."

come quickly to help me, O my God.

- 13. Let those who set themselves against me be put to shame and be disgraced; *

him all the day long.

- 16. May there be abundance of grain on the earth,
growing thick even on the hilltops;
may its fruit flourish like Lebanon, and its grain like grass upon the earth

long as the sun endures; *
may all the nations bless themselves in him and call him blessed.
- 18. Blessed are you, Lord God, the God of Israel, *

Book Three

Psalm 73

1. Truly, God is good to Israel, *
to those who are pure in heart.
2. But as for me, my feet had nearly slipped; *
I had almost tripped and fallen;
3. because I envied the proud *
and saw the prosperity of the wicked:
4. For they suffer no pain, *
and their bodies are sleek and sound;
5. in the misfortunes of others they have no share; *
they are not afflicted as others are;
6. therefore they wear their pride like a necklace *
and wrap their violence about them like a cloak.
7. Their iniquity comes from gross minds, *
and their hearts overflow with wicked thoughts.
8. They scoff and speak maliciously; *
out of their haughtiness they plan oppression.
9. They set their mouths against the heavens, *
and their evil speech runs through the world.
10. And so the people turn to them * and find in them no fault.
11. They say, "How should God know? *
Is there knowledge in the Most High?"

- 12. So then, these are the wicked; *
always at ease, they increase their wealth.
- 13. In vain have I kept my heart clean, *
and washed my hands in innocence.
- 14. I have been afflicted all day long, *
and punished every morning.
- 15. Had I gone on speaking this way, *
I should have betrayed the generation of your children.
- 16. When I tried to understand these things, *
it was too hard for me;
- 17. Until I entered the sanctuary of God *
and discerned the end of the wicked.
- 18. Surely, you set them in slippery places; *
you cast them down in ruin.
- 19. Oh, how suddenly do they come to destruction, *
come to an end, and perish from terror!
- 20. Like a dream when one awakens, O Lord, *
when you arise you will make their image vanish.
- 21. When my mind became embittered, *
I was sorely wounded in my heart.
- 22. I was stupid and had no understanding; *
I was like a brute beast in your presence.
- 23. Yet I am always with you; *
you hold me by my hand.

- 24. You will guide me by your counsel, *
and afterwards receive me with glory.
- 25. Whom have I in heaven but you? *
and having you I desire nothing upon earth.
- 26. Though my flesh and my heart should waste away, *
you are the strength of my heart and my portion for ever.
- 27. Truly, those who forsake you will perish; *
you destroy all who are unfaithful.
- 28. But it is good for me to be near you; I have made you, Lord God, my refuge. *
I will speak of all your works in the gates of the city of Zion.

Psalm 74

- 1. O God, why have you utterly cast us off? *
Why is your wrath so hot against the sheep of your pasture?
- 2. Remember your congregation that you purchased
long ago, *
the tribe you redeemed to be your inheritance, and Mount Zion where you dwell.
- 3. Turn your steps toward the endless ruins; *
the enemy has laid waste everything in your sanctuary.

4. Your adversaries roared in your holy place; *
they set up their banners as tokens of victory.
5. They were like men coming up with axes *
to cut down a grove of trees;
6. they broke down all your carved work *
with hatchets and hammers.
7. They set fire to your holy place; *
they defiled the dwelling place of your name
and razed it to the ground.
8. They said to themselves, "Let us destroy them altogether." *
They burned down all the meeting-places of God in the land.
9. There are no signs for us to see; there is no prophet left; *
there is not one among us who knows how long.
10. How long, O God, will the adversary scoff? *
Will the enemy blaspheme your name for ever?
11. Why do you draw back your hand? *
Why is your mighty hand hidden in your bosom?
12. Yet you are my sovereign from ancient times, *
victorious in the midst of the earth.
13. You divided the sea by your might * and shattered the heads of the dragons upon the waters;

- 14. You crushed the heads of Leviathan *
and gave it to the people of the desert for food.
- 15. You split open spring and torrent; *
you dried up ever-flowing rivers.
- 16. Yours is the day, yours also the night; *
you established the moon and the sun.
- 17. You fixed all the boundaries of the earth; *
you made both summer and winter.
- 18. Remember, O Lord, how the enemy scoffed, *
how a foolish people despised your name.
- 19. Do not hand over the life of your dove to wild beasts; *
never forget the lives of your poor.
- 20. Look upon your covenant; *
the dark places of the earth are haunts of violence.
- 21. Let not the oppressed turn away ashamed; *
let the poor and needy praise your name.
- 22. Arise, O God, maintain your cause; *
remember how fools revile you all day long.
- 23. Forget not the clamour of your adversaries, *
the unending tumult of those who rise up against
you.

Psalm 75

1. We give you thanks, O God, *
we give you thanks, calling upon your name and declaring all your wonderful deeds.
2. "I will appoint a time," says God; *
"I will judge with equity.
3. Though the earth and all its inhabitants are quaking, *
I will make its pillars fast.
4. I will say to the boasters, 'Boast no more,' *
and to the wicked, "Do not toss your horns;
5. Do not toss your horns so high, *
nor speak with a proud neck.'"
6. For judgement is neither from the east nor from the west, *
nor yet from the wilderness of the mountains.
7. It is you, O God, who judges; *
you put down one and lift up another
8. For in your hand, O Lord, there is a cup, full of spiced and foaming wine, which you pour out, *
and all the wicked of the earth shall drink and drain
the dregs.
9. But I will rejoice for ever; *
I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.

10. You shall break off all the horns of the wicked; *
but the horns of the righteous shall be exalted.

Psalm 76

1. In Judah are you known, O God; *
your name is great in Israel.
2. At Salem is your tabernacle, *
and your dwelling is in Zion.
3. There you broke the flashing arrows, *
the shield, the sword and the weapons of battle.
4. How glorious you are! *
More splendid than the everlasting mountains!
5. The strong of heart have been despoiled; they sink into sleep; *
none of the warriors can lift a hand.
6. At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, *
both horse and rider lie stunned.
7. What terror you inspire! *
Who can stand before you when you are angry?
8. From heaven you pronounced judgement; *
the earth was afraid and was still;
9. When you, O God, rose up to judgement *
and to save all the oppressed of the earth.

10. Truly, wrathful Edom will give you thanks, * and the remnant of Hamath will keep your feasts.
11. Make a vow to the Lord your God and keep it; *
let all around bring gifts to the One who is worthy to be feared
12. who breaks the spirit of princes, *
and strikes terror in the rulers of the earth.

Psalm 77

1. I will cry aloud to God; *
I will cry aloud, and God will hear me.
2. In the day of my trouble *I sought the Lord;
my hands were stretched out by night and did not tire; *I refused to be comforted.
3. I think of God, I am restless, *
I ponder, and my spirit faints.
4. You will not let my eyelids close; *
I am troubled and I cannot speak.
5. I consider the days of old; *
I remember the years long past;
6. I commune with my heart in the night; *
I ponder and search my mind.
7. Will the Lord cast me off for ever * and no longer favour me?

- 8. O God, has your loving-kindness come to an end for ever *
and has your promise failed for evermore?
- 9. Have you forgotten to be gracious *
and in anger withheld compassion?
- 10. And I said, "My grief is this: *
the mighty hand of the Most High has lost its power."
- 11. I will remember your works, O Lord, *
and call to mind your wonders of old time.
- 12. I will meditate on all your acts *
and ponder your mighty deeds.
- 13. Your way, O God, is holy; *
who is so great a god as our God?
- 14. You are the God who works wonders *
and have declared your power among the peoples.
- 15. By your strength you have redeemed your people, *
the children of Jacob and Joseph.
- 16. The waters saw you, O God; the waters saw you and trembled; *
the very depths were shaken.
- 17. The clouds poured out water; the skies thundered; *
your arrows flashed to and fro;

18. the sound of your thunder was in the whirlwind;
your lightnings lit up the world; *
the earth trembled and shook.
19. Your way was in the sea, and your paths in the great
waters, *
yet your footsteps were not seen.
20. You led your people like a flock *
by the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

Part I

1. Hear my teaching, O my people; *
incline your ears to the words of my mouth.
2. I will open my mouth in a parable; *
I will declare the mysteries of ancient times.
3. That which we have heard and known, and what our ancestors have told us, *
we will not hide from their children.
4. We will recount to generations to come the praiseworthy deeds and the power of the Lord, *
who has done wonderful works.
5. The Lord gave a decree to Jacob and established a law for Israel, *
commanding them to teach their children;

6. that the generations to come might know, and the children yet unborn; *
that they in their turn might tell it to their children;
7. so that they might put their trust in God, *
and not forget those mighty deeds, but keep the commandments;
8. and not be like their ancestors, a stubborn and rebellious generation, *
a generation whose heart was not steadfast, and whose spirit was not faithful to God.
9. The people of Ephraim, armed with the bow, * turned back in the day of battle;
10. they did not keep the covenant of God, *
and refused to walk in the law;
11. they forgot what God had done, *
and the wonders God had shown them.
12. God worked marvels in the sight of their ancestors, *
in the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan,
13. splitting open the sea and letting them pass through, *
making the waters stand up like walls;
14. leading them with a cloud by day, *
and all the night through with the glow of fire;
15. splitting hard rocks in the wilderness, *
and giving them drink as from the great deep;

16. bringing streams out of the cliff, *
and the waters gushing out like rivers.
17. But they went on sinning against God, *
rebellious in the desert against the Most High.
18. They tested God in their hearts, *
demanding food for their craving.
19. They railed against God and said, *
“Can God set a table in the wilderness?”
20. True, God struck the rock, the waters gushed out, and the gullies overflowed; *
but is God able to give bread or to provide meat for this people?”
21. Hearing this, the Lord was full of wrath; *
a fire was kindled against Jacob, and the divine anger mounted against Israel;
22. for they had no faith in God, *
nor did they put their trust in the saving power of God
23. So God commanded the clouds above *
and opened the doors of heaven, 24. raining down manna upon them to eat *
and giving them grain from heaven.
25. So mortals ate the bread of angels; *
God provided for them food enough.

- 26. The Lord caused the east wind to blow in the heavens * and powerfully led out the south wind,
- 27. raining down flesh upon them like dust *
and winged birds like the sand of the sea,
- 28. letting it fall in the midst of their camp *
and round about their dwellings.
- 29. So they ate and were well filled, *
for God gave them what they craved.
- 30. But they did not stop their craving, *
though the food was still in their mouths.
- 31. So the anger of God mounted against them; *
the Lord slew their strongest men and laid low the youth of Israel.
- 32. In spite of all this, they went on sinning *
and had no faith in the wonderful works of God.
- 33. So the Lord brought their days to an end like a breath *
and their years in sudden terror.
- 34. Whenever God slew them, they would seek the Lord, *
and repent and diligently search for God.
- 35. They would remember that God was their rock, *
and the Most High God their redeemer.

- 36. But they flattered God with their mouths *
and lied with their tongues.
- 37. Their heart was not steadfast *
nor were they faithful to the covenant.
- 38. But God, being merciful, forgave their sins and did not destroy them, *
holding back the divine anger and not permitting
wrath to be roused.
- 39. For the Lord remembered that they were but flesh, *
a breath that goes forth and does not return.

Part II

- 40. How often the people disobeyed God in the wilderness *
and offended in the desert!
- 41. Again and again they tempted God *
and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
- 42. They did not remember the power of God *
in the day when the Lord ransomed them from the enemy;
- 43. how God wrought signs in Egypt *
and omens in the field of Zoan,
- 44. turning their rivers into blood, *
so that they could not drink of their streams;

- 45. sending swarms of flies among them, which ate them up, *
and frogs, which destroyed them;
- 46. giving their crops to the caterpillar, *
the fruit of their toil to the locust;
- 47. killing their vines with hail *
and their sycamores with frost;
- 48. delivering their cattle to hailstones *
and their livestock to hot thunderbolts.
- 49. God poured out upon them blazing anger: *
fury, indignation and distress, a troop of destroying angels.
- 50. Giving full rein to anger, God did not spare their souls from death, *
but delivered their lives to the plague,
- 51. striking down all the firstborn of Egypt, *
the flower of youth in the dwellings of Ham.
- 52. God led this people like sheep *
and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
- 53. The Lord led them to safety, and they were not afraid; *
but the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
- 54. God brought them to the holy land, *
the mountain the strong hand of God had won.

- 55. God drove out the Canaanites before them and apportioned an inheritance to them by lot, * making the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.
- 56. But they tested and defied the Most High * and did not keep the commandments.
- 57. They turned away and were disloyal like their ancestors; * they were undependable like a warped bow.
- 58. They grieved God with their hill-altars * and provoked displeasure with their idols.
- 59. Hearing this, God was angry * and utterly rejected Israel;
- 60. forsaking the shrine at Shiloh, * the tabernacle where God had lived among this people;
- 61. delivering the ark into captivity, * the glory of God into the adversary's hand;
- 62. giving this people to the sword * and becoming angry against the very inheritance of God.
- 63. The fire consumed their young men; * there were no wedding songs for their young women.
- 64. Their priests fell by the sword, * and their widows made no lamentation.

65. Then the Lord woke as though from sleep, *
like a warrior refreshed with wine,
66. striking the enemies of God on the backside *
and putting them to perpetual shame.
67. God rejected the tent of Joseph * and did not choose the tribe of Ephraim;
68. choosing instead the tribe of Judah *
and Mount Zion, beloved by God,
69. where a sanctuary was built like the heights of heaven, *
like the everlasting earth.
70. God chose David as a servant *
and took him away from the sheepfolds, 71. bringing him from following the ewes, *
to be a shepherd over Jacob God's people and over the inheritance of Israel.
72. So David shepherded them with a faithful and true heart *
and guided them with the skillfulness of God's hands.

Psalm 79

1. O God, the heathen have come into your inheritance; they have profaned your holy temple; *
they have made Jerusalem a heap of rubble.

2. They have given the bodies of your servants as food for the birds of the air, * and the flesh of your faithful ones to the beasts of the field.
3. They have shed their blood like water on every side of Jerusalem, * and there was no one to bury them.
4. We have become a reproach to our neighbours, *
an object of scorn and derision to those around us.
5. How long will you be angry, O Lord? *
Will your fury blaze like fire for ever?
6. Pour out your wrath upon the heathen who have not known you * and upon the dominions that have not called upon your name.
7. For they have devoured Jacob * and made his dwelling a ruin.
8. Remember not our past sins;
let your compassion be swift to meet us; *
for we have been brought very low.
9. Help us, O God our Saviour, for the glory of your name; *
deliver us and forgive us our sins, for your name's sake.

- 10. Why should the heathen say, "Where is their God?" *
- Let it be known among the heathen and in our sight that you avenge the shedding of your servants' blood.
- 11. Let the sorrowful sighing of the prisoners come before you, *
- and by your great might spare those who are condemned to die.
- 12. May the revilings with which they reviled you, O Lord, *
- return seven-fold into their bosoms.
- 13. For we are your people and the sheep of your pasture; *
- we will give you thanks for ever and show forth your praise from age to age.

Psalm 80

- 1. Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, leading Joseph like a flock; *
- shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim.
- 2. In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, *
- stir up your strength and come to help us.

- 3. Restore us, O God of hosts; *
show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.
- 4. O Lord God of hosts, *
how long will you be angered despite the prayers of your people?
- 5. You have fed them with the bread of tears; *
you have given them bowls of tears to drink.
- 6. You have made us the derision of our neighbours, *
and our enemies laugh us to scorn.
- 7. Restore us, O God of hosts; *
show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.
- 8. You have brought a vine out of Egypt; *
you cast out the nations and planted it.
- 9. You prepared the ground for it; *
it took root and filled the land.
- 10. The mountains were covered by its shadow *
and the towering cedar trees by its boughs.
- 11. You stretched out its tendrils to the sea *
and its branches to the river.
- 12. Why have you broken down its wall, *
so that all who pass by pluck off its grapes?
- 13. The wild boar of the forest has ravaged it, *
and the beasts of the field have grazed upon it.

14. Turn now, O God of hosts, *
look down from heaven;
15. behold and tend this vine; *
preserve what your strong hand has planted.
16. They burn it with fire like rubbish; *
at the rebuke of your countenance let them perish.
17. Let your hand be upon the one at your side in honour, *
the one you have made so strong for yourself.
18. And so will we never turn away from you; *
give us life, that we may call upon your name.
19. Restore us, O Lord God of hosts; * show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

Psalm 81

1. Sing with joy to God our strength * and raise a loud shout to the God of Jacob.
2. Raise a song and sound the timbrel, *
the merry harp, and the lyre.
3. Blow the ram's-horn at the new moon, *
and at the full moon, the day of our feast.
4. For this is a statute for Israel, *
a law of the God of Jacob,

5. who laid it as a solemn charge upon Joseph, *
when they came out of the land of Egypt.
6. I heard an unfamiliar voice saying, *
“I eased their shoulders from the burden; their hands were set free from bearing the load.
7. You called on me in trouble, and I saved you; *
I answered you from the secret place of thunder
and tested you at the waters of Meribah.
8. Hear, O my people, and I will admonish you: *
O Israel, if you would but listen to me!
9. There shall be no strange god among you; *
you shall not worship a foreign god.
10. I am the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt and said, *
‘Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.’
11. And yet my people did not hear my voice, *
and Israel would not obey me.
12. So I gave them over to the stubbornness of their hearts, *
to follow their own devices.
13. Oh, that my people would listen to me! *
That Israel would walk in my ways!
14. I should soon subdue their enemies *
and turn my hand against their foes.

15. Those who hate the Lord would cringe before me, *
and their punishment would last for ever.
16. But Israel would I feed with the finest wheat * and satisfy them with honey from the rock.”

Psalm 82

1. God stands in the council of heaven *
and gives judgement in the midst of the gods:
2. “How long will you judge unjustly, *
and show favour to the wicked?
3. Save the weak and the orphan; *
defend the humble and needy;
4. Rescue the weak and the poor; *
deliver them from the power of the wicked.
5. They do not know, neither do they understand; they go about in darkness; *
all the foundations of the earth are shaken.
6. Now I say to you, ‘You are gods, *
and all of you children of the Most High;
7. nevertheless, you shall die like mortals, *
and fall like any prince.’”
8. Arise, O God, and rule the earth, *
for you shall take all nations for your own.

Psalm 83

1. O God, do not be silent; *
do not keep still nor hold your peace, O God;
2. for your enemies are in tumult, *
and those who hate you have lifted up their heads.
3. They take secret counsel against your people * and plot against those whom you protect.
4. They have said, "Come, let us wipe them out from among the nations; *
let the name of Israel be remembered no more."
5. They have conspired together; *
they have made an alliance against you:
6. The tents of Edom and the Ishmaelites; *
the Moabites and the Hagarenes;
7. Gebal, and Ammon, and Amalek; *
the Philistines and those who dwell in Tyre.
8. The Assyrians also have joined them, *
and have come to help the people of Lot.
9. Do to them as you did to Midian, *
to Sisera, and to Jabin at the river of Kishon:
10. They were destroyed at Endor; *
they became like dung upon the ground.
11. Make their leaders like Oreb and Zeëb, *
and all their commanders like Zebah and Zalmunna,

12. who said, "Let us take for ourselves *
the fields of God as our possession."
13. O my God, make them like whirling dust *
and like chaff before the wind;
14. Like fire that burns down a forest, *
like the flame that sets mountains ablaze.
15. Drive them with your tempest *
and terrify them with your storm;
16. Cover their faces with shame, O Lord, *
that they may seek your name.
17. Let them be disgraced and terrified for ever; *
let them be put to confusion and perish.
18. Let them know that you, whose name is Yahweh, *
you alone are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalm 84

1. How dear to me is your dwelling, O Lord of hosts! *
My soul has a desire and longing for the courts of the Lord; my heart and my flesh rejoice in the living
God.
2. The sparrow has found her a house and the swallow a nest where she may lay her young; *
by the side of your altars, O Lord of hosts, my Sovereign and my God.
3. Happy are they who dwell in your house! *
They will always be praising you.

4. Happy are the people whose strength is in you, *
whose hearts are set on the pilgrims' way!
5. Those who go through the desolate valley will find it a place of springs, *
for the early rains have covered it with pools of water.
6. They will climb from height to height, *
and you, the God of gods, will reveal yourself in Zion.
7. Lord God of hosts, hear my prayer; *
hearken, O God of Jacob.
8. Behold our defender, O God; *
and look upon the face of your anointed.
9. For one day in your courts is better than a thousand in my own room, *
and to stand at the threshold of the house of my God than to dwell in the tents of the wicked.
10. For you, Lord God, are both sun and shield; *
you will give grace and glory;
11. no good thing will you withhold, O Lord, *
from those who walk with integrity.
12. O Lord of hosts, *
happy are they who put their trust in you!

Psalm 85

1. You have been gracious to your land, O Lord, * you have restored the good fortune of Jacob.
2. You have forgiven all the iniquity of your people * and blotted out all their sins.
3. You have withdrawn all your fury *
and turned yourself from your wrathful indignation.
4. Restore us then, O God our Saviour; *
let your anger depart from us.
5. Will you be displeased with us for ever? *
Will you prolong your anger from age to age?
6. Will you not give us life again, *
that your people may rejoice in you?
7. Show us your mercy, O Lord, *
and grant us your salvation.
8. I will listen to what you, Lord God, are saying, *
for you are speaking peace to your faithful people
and to those who turn their hearts to you.
9. Truly, your salvation is very near to those who fear
you, *
that your glory may dwell in our land.
10. Mercy and truth have met together; *
righteousness and peace have kissed each other.

11. Truth shall spring up from the earth, *
and righteousness shall look down from heaven.
12. Lord, you will indeed grant prosperity, *
and our land will yield its increase.
13. Righteousness shall go before you, *
and peace shall be a pathway for your feet.

Psalm 86

1. Bow down your ear, O Lord, and answer me, *
for I am poor and in misery.
2. Keep watch over my life, for I am faithful; *
save your servant who trusts in you.
3. Be merciful to me, O Lord, for you are my God; *
I call upon you all the day long.
4. Gladden the soul of your servant, *
for to you, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
5. For you, O Lord, are good and forgiving, * and great is your love toward all who call upon you.
6. Give ear, O Lord, to my prayer, *
and attend to the voice of my supplications.
7. In the time of my trouble I will call upon you, *
for you will answer me.
8. Among the gods there is none like you, O Lord, *
nor anything like your works.

9. All nations you have made will come and worship you, O Lord, *
and glorify your name.
10. For you are great; you do wondrous things; *
and you alone are God.
11. Teach me your way, O Lord, and I will walk in your truth; *
knit my heart to you that I may fear your name.
12. I will thank you, O Lord my God, with all my heart, * and glorify your name for evermore.
13. For great is your love toward me; *
you have delivered me from the nethermost Pit.
14. The arrogant rise up against me, O God, and the violent seek my life; *
they have not set you before their eyes.
15. But you, O Lord, are gracious and full of compassion, * slow to anger, and full of kindness and truth.
16. Turn to me and have mercy upon me; *
give your strength to your servant; and save the child of your handmaid.
17. Show me a sign of your favour, so that those who hate me may see it and be ashamed; *
because you, O Lord, have helped me and comforted me.

Psalm 87

1. On the holy mountain * stands the city God has founded;
2. the Lord loves the gates of Zion
more than all the dwellings of Jacob.
3. Glorious things are spoken of you, *
O city of our God.
4. I count Egypt and Babylon among those who know
me; *
behold Philistia, Tyre, and Ethiopia: in Zion were they born.
5. Of Zion it shall be said, "Everyone was born in there, *
and the Most High shall sustain it."
6. The Lord will record as the peoples are enrolled, *
"These also were born there."
7. The singers and the dancers will say, *
"All my fresh springs are in you."

Psalm 88

1. O Lord, my God, my Saviour, *
by day and night I cry to you.
2. Let my prayer enter into your presence; *
incline your ear to my lamentation.

3. For I am full of trouble; *
my life is at the brink of the grave.
4. I am counted among those who go down to the Pit; *
I have become like one who has no strength;
5. lost among the dead, like the slain who lie in the grave, *
whom you remember no more, for they are cut off
from your hand.
6. You have laid me in the depths of the Pit, *
in dark places, and in the abyss.
7. Your anger weighs upon me heavily, *
and all your great waves overwhelm me.
8. You have put my friends far from me;
you have made me to be abhorred by them; *
I am in prison and cannot get free.
9. My sight has failed me because of trouble; *
Lord, I have called upon you daily;
I have stretched out my hands to you.
10. Do you work wonders for the dead? *
Will those who have died stand up and give you thanks?
11. Will your loving-kindness be declared in the grave *
or your faithfulness in the land of destruction?

12. Will your wonders be known in the dark? *
or your righteousness in the country where all is forgotten?
13. But as for me, O Lord, I cry to you for help; *
in the morning my prayer comes before you.
14. Lord, why have you rejected me? *
Why have you hidden your face from me?
15. Ever since my youth, I have been wretched and at the point of death; *
I have borne your terrors with a troubled mind.
16. Your blazing anger has swept over me; *
your terrors have destroyed me;
17. They surround me all day long like a flood; *
they encompass me on every side.
18. My friend and my neighbour you have put away
from me, *
and darkness is my only companion.

Psalm 89

Part I

1. Your love, O Lord, for ever will I sing; *
from age to age my mouth will proclaim your faithfulness.
2. For I am persuaded that your love is established for ever; *
you have set your faithfulness firmly in the heavens.

3. "I have made a covenant with my chosen one; *
I have sworn an oath to David my servant:
4. 'I will establish your line for ever, *
and preserve your throne for all generations.'"
5. The heavens bear witness to your wonders,
O Lord, *
and to your faithfulness in the assembly of the holy
ones;
6. for who in the skies can be compared to the Lord? *
Who is like the Lord among the gods?
7. You are much to be feared in the council of the holy ones, *
great and terrible to all those round about you.
8. Who is like you, Lord God of hosts? *
O mighty Lord, your faithfulness is all around you.
9. You rule the raging of the sea *
and still the surging of its waves.
10. You have crushed Rahab of the deep with a deadly wound; *
you have scattered your enemies with your mighty arm.
11. Yours are the heavens; the earth also is yours; *
you laid the foundations of the world and all that is in it.
12. You have made the north and the south; *
Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.

- 13. You have a mighty arm; *
strong and lofty is your hand.
- 14. Righteousness and justice are the foundations of
your throne;*
love and truth go before your face.
- 15. Happy are the people who know the festal shout! *
they walk, O Lord, in the light of your presence.
- 16. They rejoice daily in your name; *
they are jubilant in your righteousness.
- 17. For you are the glory of their strength, *
and by your favour our might is exalted.
- 18. Truly, the Lord is our ruler; *
the Holy One of Israel is our sovereign.

Part II

- 19. You spoke once in a vision and said to your faithful
people: *
“I have set the crown upon a warrior and have exalted one chosen out of the people.
- 20. I have found David my servant; *
with my holy oil have I anointed him.
- 21. My hand will hold him fast *
and my arm will make him strong.
- 22. No enemy shall deceive him, *
nor any wicked one bring him down.

- 23. I will crush his foes before him *
and strike down those who hate him.
- 24. My faithfulness and love shall be with him, *
and he shall be victorious through my name.
- 25. I shall make his dominion extend *
from the Great Sea to the River.
- 26. He will say to me, 'You are my Father, *
my God, and the rock of my salvation'
- 27. I will make him my firstborn *
and higher than the rulers of the earth.
- 28. I will keep my love for him for ever, *
and my covenant will stand firm for him.
- 29. I will establish his line for ever *
and his throne as the days of heaven.
- 30. If his children forsake my law *
and do not walk according to my judgements;
- 31. if they break my statutes *
and do not keep my commandments;
- 32. I will punish their transgressions with a rod *
and their iniquities with the lash;
- 33. but I will not take my love from him, *
nor let my faithfulness prove false.
- 34. I will not break my covenant, *
nor change what has gone out of my lips.

- 35. Once for all I have sworn by my holiness: *
'I will not lie to David.
- 36. His line shall endure for ever *
and his throne as the sun before me;
- 37. It shall stand fast for evermore like the moon, *
the abiding witness in the sky.'"
- 38. But you have cast off and rejected your anointed; *
you have become enraged at him.
- 39. You have broken your covenant with your servant, *
defiled his crown, and hurled it to the ground.
- 40. You have breached all his walls *
and laid his strongholds in ruins.
- 41. All who pass by despoil him; *
he has become the scorn of his neighbours.
- 42. You have exalted the strong hand of his foes *
and have not sustained him in battle.
- 43. You have turned back the edge of his sword *
and have not sustained him in battle.
- 44. You have put an end to his splendour *
and cast his throne to the ground.
- 45. You have cut short the days of his youth *
and have covered him with shame.
- 46. How long will you hide yourself, O Lord? Will you hide yourself for ever? *
How long will your anger burn like fire?

- 47. Remember, Lord, how short life is, *
how frail you have made all flesh.
- 48. Who can live and not see death? *
Who can save oneself from the power of the grave?
- 49. Where, Lord, are your loving-kindnesses of old, *
which you promised David in your faithfulness?
- 50. Remember, Lord, how your servant is mocked, *
how I carry in my bosom the taunts of many peoples,
- 51. the taunts your enemies have hurled, O Lord, *
which they hurled at the heels of your anointed.
- 52. Blessed be the Lord for evermore! *
Amen, I say, Amen.

Book Four

Psalm 90

1. Lord, you have been our refuge * from one generation to another.
2. Before the mountains were brought forth, or the land and the earth were born, *
from age to age you are God.
3. You turn us back to the dust and say, *
“Go back, O child of earth.”
4. For a thousand years in your sight are like yesterday when it is past *
and like a watch in the night.
5. You sweep us away like a dream; *
we fade away suddenly like the grass.
6. In the morning it is green and flourishes; *
in the evening it is dried up and withered.
7. For we consume away in your displeasure; *
we are afraid because of your wrathful indignation.
8. Our iniquities you have set before you, *
and our secret sins in the light of your countenance.
9. When you are angry, all our days are gone; *
we bring our years to an end like a sigh.

- 10. The span of our life is seventy years, perhaps in strength even eighty; *
yet the sum of them is but labour and sorrow, for they pass away quickly and we are gone.
- 11. Who regards the power of your wrath? *
Who rightly fears your indignation?
- 12. So teach us to number our days *
that we may apply our hearts to wisdom.
- 13. Return, O Lord; how long will you tarry? *
Be gracious to your servants.
- 14. Satisfy us by your loving-kindness in the morning; *
so shall we rejoice and be glad all the days of our life.
- 15. Make us glad by the measure of the days that you afflicted us * and the years in which we suffered adversity.
- 16. Show your servants your works *
and your splendour to their children.
- 17. May the graciousness of the Lord our God be upon us; *
prosper the work of our hands; prosper our handiwork.

Psalm 91

- 1. Those who dwell in the shelter of the Most High, *
abide under the shadow of the Almighty.

2. They shall say to the Lord, "You are our refuge and our stronghold, * our God in whom we put our trust."
3. The Lord shall deliver you from the snare of the hunter * and from the deadly pestilence.
4. The wings of the Lord shall cover you,
and you shall find refuge under them; *
the faithfulness of God shall be a shield and buckler.
5. You shall not be afraid of any terror by night, *
nor of the arrow that flies by day;
6. of the plague that stalks in the darkness, *
nor of the sickness that lays waste at mid-day.
7. A thousand shall fall at your side and ten thousand at your side, *
but it shall not come near you.
8. Your eyes have only to behold *
to see the reward of the wicked.
9. Because you have made the Lord your refuge, *
and the Most High your habitation,
10. there shall no evil happen to you, *
neither shall any plague come near your dwelling.
11. For the angels of God shall have charge over you, *
to keep you in all your ways.

12. They shall bear you in their hands, *
lest you dash your foot against a stone.
13. You shall tread upon the lion and adder; *
you shall trample the young lion and the serpent
under your feet.
14. “Because they are bound to me in love,
therefore will I deliver them; *
I will protect them, because they know my name.
15. They shall call upon me, and I will answer them; *
I am with them in trouble; I will rescue them and bring them to honour.
16. With long life will I satisfy them, * and show them my salvation.”

Psalm 92

1. It is a good thing to give thanks to the Lord, *
and to sing praises to your name, O Most High;
2. to tell of your loving-kindness early in the morning *
and of your faithfulness in the night season;
3. on the psaltery, and on the lyre, *
and to the melody of the harp.
4. For you have made me glad by your acts, O Lord; *
and I shout for joy because of the works of your
hands.
5. Lord, how great are your works! *
Your thoughts are very deep.

- 6. The dullard does not know, *
nor does the fool understand,
- 7. that though the wicked grow like weeds, and all the workers of iniquity flourish, *
they flourish only to be destroyed for ever;
- 8. but you, O Lord, *
are exalted for evermore.
- 9. For lo, your enemies, O Lord, lo, your enemies shall perish, *
and all the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.
- 10. But my horn you have exalted like the horns of wild bulls; *
I am anointed with fresh oil.
- 11. My eyes also gloat over my enemies, *
and my ears rejoice to hear the doom of the wicked
who rise up against me.
- 12. The righteous shall flourish like a palm tree, *
and shall spread abroad like a cedar of Lebanon.
- 13. Those who are planted in the house of the Lord *
shall flourish in the courts of our God;
- 14. they shall still bear fruit in old age; *
they shall be green and succulent;
- 15. that they may show how upright the Lord is, *
my rock, in whom there is no fault.

Psalm 93

1. The Lord reigns and has put on splendid apparel;
the Lord is robed in splendour and girded with strength. *
The Lord has made the whole world so sure that it cannot be moved;
2. ever since the world began, your throne has been established; *
you are from everlasting.
3. The waters have lifted up, O Lord, the waters have lifted up their voice; *
the waters have lifted up their pounding waves.
4. Mightier than the sound of many waters, mightier than the breakers of the sea, *
mightier is the Lord who dwells on high.
5. Your testimonies are very sure, *
and holiness adorns your house, O Lord, for ever
and for evermore.

Psalm 94

1. O Lord God of vengeance, *
O God of vengeance, show yourself.
2. Rise up, O Judge of the world; *
give the arrogant their just deserts.
3. How long shall the wicked, O Lord, *
how long shall the wicked triumph?

4. They bluster in their insolence; *
all evildoers are full of boasting.
5. They crush your people, O Lord, *
and afflict your chosen nation.
6. They murder the widow and the stranger * and put the orphans to death.
7. Yet they say, "The Lord does not see, *
the God of Jacob takes no notice."
8. Consider well, you dullards among the people; *
when will you fools understand?
9. Does the One that planted the ear not hear? *
Does the One that formed the eye not see?
10. Does the One who admonishes the nations not punish? *
Does the One who teaches all the world have no knowledge?
11. The Lord knows our human thoughts; *
how like a puff of wind they are.
12. Happy are they whom you instruct, O Lord! *
whom you teach out of your law;
13. to give them rest in evil days, *
until a pit is dug for the wicked.
14. For you will not abandon your people, *
nor will you forsake your own.

15. For judgement will again be just, *
and all the true of heart will follow it.
16. Who rose up for me against the wicked? *
Who took my part against the evildoers?
17. If the Lord had not come to my help, *
I should soon have dwelt in the land of silence.
18. As often as I said, "My foot has slipped," *
your love, O Lord, upheld me.
19. When many cares fill my mind, *
your consolations cheer my soul.
20. Can a corrupt tribunal have any part with you, *
one which frames evil into law?
21. They conspire against the life of the just * and condemn the innocent to death.
22. But, you, O Lord, have become my stronghold, * and my God, the rock of my trust.
23. O Lord, you will turn their wickedness back upon them and destroy them in their own malice; *
you, the Lord our God, will destroy them.

Psalm 95

1. Come, let us sing to the Lord; *
let us shout for joy to the rock of our salvation.

2. Let us come before the presence of the Lord with thanksgiving *
and raise a loud shout to God with psalms.
3. For you, O Lord, are a great God, *
and a great sovereign above all gods.
4. In your hand are the caverns of the earth, *
and the heights of the hills are yours also.
5. The sea is yours, for you made it, *
and your hands have moulded the dry land.
6. Come, let us bow down, and bend the knee, *
and kneel before the Lord our Maker.
7. For you are our God, and we are the people of your pasture and the sheep of your hand. *
Oh, that today we would hearken to your voice!
8. “Harden not your hearts, as your forebears did in the wilderness, * at Meribah, and on that day at Massah, when they tempted me.
9. They put me to the test, *
though they had seen my works.
10. Forty years long I detested that generation and said, *
‘This people are wayward in their hearts; they do not know my ways.’
11. So I swore in my wrath, *
‘They shall not enter into my rest.’”

Psalm 96

1. Sing to the Lord a new song; *
sing to the Lord, all the whole earth.
2. Sing to the Lord and bless the divine name; *
proclaim the good news of our salvation from day to day.
3. Declare the glory of the Lord among the nations * and the wonders of God among all peoples.
4. For great is the Lord and greatly to be praised, *
more to be feared than all gods.
5. As for all the gods of the nations, they are but idols;
but it is you, O Lord, who made the heavens.
6. Oh, the majesty and magnificence of your presence! *
Oh, the power and the splendour of your sanctuary!
7. Ascribe to the Lord, you families of the peoples; *
ascribe to the Lord honour and power.
8. Ascribe to the Lord the honour due the divine name; *
bring offerings and come into the courts of the Lord.
9. Worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness; *
let the whole earth tremble before God.

10. Tell it out among the nations: “The Lord reigns! *
The Lord who made the world so firm that it cannot be moved will judge the peoples with equity.”
11. Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is in it; *
let the field be joyful and all that is therein.
12. Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy before the Lord who is coming, *
who is coming to judge the earth.
13. The Lord will judge the world with righteousness * and the peoples with truth.

Psalm 97

1. The Lord reigns; let the earth rejoice; *
let the multitude of the isles be glad.
2. Clouds and darkness are round about you, O Lord; *
righteousness and justice are the foundations of
your throne.
3. A fire goes before you *
and burns up your enemies on every side.
4. Your lightnings light up the world; *
the earth sees it and is afraid.
5. The mountains melt like wax at the presence of the Lord, *
at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.

6. The heavens declare your righteousness, *
and all the peoples see your glory.
7. Confounded be all who worship carved images and delight in false gods! *
Bow down before the Lord, all you gods.
8. Zion hears and is glad, and the cities of Judah rejoice, *
because of your judgements, O Lord.
9. For you are the Lord, most high over all the earth; *
you are exalted far above all gods.
10. The Lord loves those who hate evil, * preserving the lives of the saints and delivering them from the hand of the wicked.
11. Light has sprung up for the righteous, *
and joyful gladness for those who are truehearted.
12. Rejoice in the Lord, you righteous, *
and give thanks to the holy name of the Lord.

Psalm 98

1. Sing a new song to the Lord, who has done marvellous things, *
whose mighty hand and holy arm have won the victory.
2. O Lord, you have made known the victory; *
you have openly shown your righteousness in the sight of the nations.

3. You remember your mercy and faithfulness to the house of Israel, * and all the ends of the earth have seen your victory,
O God.
4. Shout with joy to the Lord, all you lands; *
lift up your voice, rejoice and sing.
5. Sing to the Lord with the harp, *
with the harp and the voice of song.
6. With trumpets and the sound of the horn * shout with joy before our sovereign, the Lord.
7. Let the sea make a noise and all that is in it, *
the lands and those who dwell therein.
8. Let the rivers clap their hands, *
and let the hills ring out with joy before the Lord,
who is coming to judge the earth.
9. In righteousness shall God judge the world * and the peoples with equity.

Psalm 99

1. The Lord reigns; * let the people tremble;
the Lord is enthroned upon the Cherubim; * let the earth shake.
2. The Lord is great in Zion *
and is high above all peoples.

3. Let them confess your name, which is great and awesome; *
you are the Holy One.
4. “O mighty Sovereign, lover of justice, you have established equity; *
you have executed justice and righteousness in Jacob.”
5. Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God and fall down before the footstool of God; *
the Lord is the Holy One.
6. Moses and Aaron among your priests, * and Samuel among those who call upon your name, they called upon you, O Lord, *and you answered them.
7. You spoke to them out of the pillar of cloud; *
they kept your testimonies and the decree that you gave them.
8. “O Lord our God, you answered them indeed; *
you were a God who forgave them, yet punished them for their evil deeds.”
9. Proclaim the greatness of the Lord our God and worship upon the holy hill of God; *
for the Lord our God is the Holy One.

Psalm 100

- 1. Be joyful in the Lord, *
all you lands;
- 2. serve the Lord with gladness *
and come into the divine presence with a song.
- 3. Know this: the Lord, the Lord, is God; *
the One made us and to whom we belong; we are God's people, the sheep of God's pasture.
- 4. Enter the gates of the Lord with thanksgiving; go into these courts with praise; *
give thanks to God and call upon the name of the Lord.
- 5. For the Lord is good, whose steadfast love is everlasting; *
and whose faithfulness endures from age to age.

Psalm 101

- 1. I will sing of mercy and justice; *
to you, O Lord, will I sing praises.
- 2. I will strive to follow a blameless course; oh, when will you come to me? *
I will walk with sincerity of heart within my house.
- 3. I will set no worthless thing before my eyes; *
I hate the doers of evil deeds; they shall not remain with me.

4. A crooked heart shall be far from me; *
I will not know evil.
5. Those who in secret slander their neighbours I will destroy; *
those who have a haughty look and a proud heart I cannot abide.
6. My eyes are upon the faithful in the land, that they may dwell with me, *
and only those who lead a blameless life shall be my servants.
7. Those who act deceitfully shall not dwell in my house, *
and those who tell lies shall not continue in my sight.
8. I will soon destroy all the wicked in the land, * that I may root out all evildoers from the city of the Lord.

Psalm 102

1. Lord, hear my prayer, and let my cry come before
you; *
hide not your face from me in the day of my trouble.
2. Incline your ear to me; *
when I call, make haste to answer me,
3. For my days drift away like smoke, *
and my bones are hot as burning coals.

4. My heart is smitten like grass and withered, *
so that I forget to eat my bread.
5. Because of the voice of my groaning *
I am but skin and bones.
6. I have become like a vulture in the wilderness, *
like an owl among the ruins.
7. I lie awake and groan; *
I am like a sparrow, lonely on a house-top.
8. My enemies revile me all day long, *
and those who scoff at me have taken an oath
against me.
9. For I have eaten ashes for bread * and mingled my drink with weeping.
10. Because of your indignation and wrath *
you have lifted me up and thrown me away.
11. My days pass away like a shadow, *
and I wither like the grass.
12. But you, O Lord, endure for ever, *
and your name from age to age.
13. You will arise and have compassion on Zion, for it is time to have mercy upon her; *
indeed, the appointed time has come.
14. For your servants love her very rubble, *
and are moved to pity even for her dust.

- 15. The nations shall fear your name, O Lord, *
and all the rulers of the earth your glory.
- 16. For you, O Lord, will build up Zion, *
and your glory will appear.
- 17. You will look with favour on the prayer of the homeless; *
you will not despise their plea.
- 18. Let this be written for a future generation, *
so that a people yet unborn may praise the Lord.
- 19. For you, O Lord, looked down from your holy place
on high; *
from the heavens you beheld the earth;
- 20. that you might hear the groan of the captive *
and set free those condemned to die;
- 21. so that they may declare in Zion the name of the Lord, *
and your praise in Jerusalem;
- 22. when the peoples are gathered together, *
and the nations also, to serve the Lord.
- 23. You have brought down my strength before my time; *
you have shortened the number of my days;
- 24. And I said, "O my God, do not take me away in the midst of my days; *
your years endure throughout all generations.

- 25. In the beginning, O Lord, you laid the foundations of the earth, *
and the heavens are the work of your hands;
- 26. They shall perish, but you will endure; they all shall wear out like a garment; *
as clothing you will change them, and they shall be changed;
- 27. But you are always the same, *
and your years will never end.
- 28. The children of your servants shall continue, *
and their offspring shall stand fast in your sight”.

Psalm 103

- 1. Bless the Lord, O my soul, *
and all that is within me, bless God’s holy name.
- 2. Bless the Lord, O my soul, *
and forget not all the benefits of the Lord.
- 3. The Lord forgives all your sins *
and heals all your infirmities;
- 4. redeeming your life from the grave *
and crowning you with mercy and loving-kindness;
- 5. satisfying you with good things, *
and renewing your youth like an eagle’s.
- 6. The Lord executes righteousness *
and judgement for all who are oppressed.

7. O Lord, you made your ways known to Moses * and your works to the children of Israel.
8. You are full of compassion and mercy, *
slow to anger and of great kindness.
9. You will not always accuse us, *
nor will you keep your anger for ever.
10. You have not dealt with us according to our sins, *
nor rewarded us according to our wickedness.
11. For as the heavens are high above the earth, *
so is your mercy great upon those who fear you.
12. As far as the east is from the west, *
so far have you removed our sins from us.
13. As parents care for their children, *
so do you, O Lord, care for those who fear you.
14. For you yourself know whereof we are made; *
you remember that we are but dust.
15. Our days are like the grass; *
we flourish like a flower of the field;
16. when the wind goes over it, it is gone, *
and its place shall know it no more.
17. But your merciful goodness endures for ever on those who fear you, *
and your righteousness on children's children;
18. on those who keep the covenant *
and remember the commandments and do them.

19. The Lord is enthroned in heaven, *
and has dominion over all.
20. Bless the Lord, you angels, you mighty ones who do the bidding of God, *
and hearken to the voice of the word of the Lord.
21. Bless the Lord, all you hosts, *
you ministers who do the will of God.
22. Bless the Lord, all you works of the Lord, in all places of the dominion of the Lord; *
bless the Lord, O my soul.

Psalm 104

1. Bless the Lord, O my soul; *
O Lord my God, how excellent is your greatness! You are clothed with majesty and splendour.
2. You wrap yourself with light as with a cloak * and spread out the heavens like a curtain.
3. You lay the beams of your chambers in the waters above; *
you make the clouds your chariot; you ride on the wings of the wind.
4. You make the winds your messengers *
and flames of fire your servants.
5. You have set the earth upon its foundations, *
so that it never shall move at any time.

6. You covered it with the deep as with a mantle; *
the waters stood higher than the mountains.
7. At your rebuke they fled; *
at the voice of your thunder they hastened away.
8. They went up into the hills and down to the valleys beneath, *
to the places you had appointed for them.
9. You set the limits that they should not pass; *
they shall not again cover the earth.
10. You send the springs into the valleys; *
they flow between the mountains.
11. All the beasts of the field drink their fill from them, *
and the wild asses quench their thirst.
12. Beside them the birds of the air make their nests * and sing among the branches.
13. You water the mountains from your dwelling on
high; *
the earth is fully satisfied by the fruit of your works.
14. You make grass grow for flocks and herds * and plants to serve human beings that they may bring forth food from the earth, *
15. wine to gladden our hearts, oil to make a cheerful countenance, *
and bread to strengthen the heart.

- 16. The trees of the Lord are full of sap, *
the cedars of Lebanon which you planted,
- 17. in which the birds build their nests, *
and in whose tops the stork makes its dwelling.
- 18. The high hills are a refuge for the mountain goats, *
and the stony cliffs for the rock badgers.
- 19. You appointed the moon to mark the seasons, *
and the sun knows the time of its setting.
- 20. You make darkness that it may be night, *
in which all the beasts of the forest prowl.
- 21. The lions roar after their prey *
and seek their food from God.
- 22. The sun rises, and they slip away *
and lay themselves down in their dens.
- 23. Mortals goes forth to their work *
and to their labour until the evening.
- 24. O Lord, how manifold are your works! *
In wisdom you have made them all; the earth is full of your creatures.
- 25. Yonder is the great and wide sea with its living things too many to number, *
creatures both small and great.
- 26. There move the ships, and there is that Leviathan, *
which you have made for the sport of it.

- 27. All of them look to you *
to give them their food in due season.
- 28. You give it to them; they gather it; *
you open your hand, and they are filled with good things.
- 29. You hide your face, and they are terrified; *
you take away their breath, and they die and return to their dust.
- 30. You send forth your Spirit, and they are created; *
and so you renew the face of the earth.
- 31. May your glory, O Lord, endure for ever; *
may you rejoice in all your works;
- 32. you look at the earth and it trembles; *
you touch the mountains and they smoke.
- 33. I will sing to the Lord as long as I live; *
I will praise my God while I have my being.
- 34. May these words of mine please you; *
I will rejoice in the Lord.
- 35. Let sinners be consumed out of the earth, and the wicked be no more. *
Bless the Lord, O my soul. Hallelujah!

Psalm 105

Part I

1. Give thanks to the Lord and call upon the divine name; *
make known the deeds of the Lord among the peoples.
2. Sing to the Lord, sing praises, *
and speak of all the marvellous works of the Lord.
3. Glory in the holy name; *
let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice.
4. Search for the strength of the Lord; *
continually seek the face of God.
5. Remember the marvels the Lord has done, *
the wonders and the judgements of the mouth of the Lord,
6. O offspring of Abraham the servant of God, *
O children of Jacob the chosen of the Lord.
7. The Lord is our God, *
whose judgements prevail in all the world,
8. who has always been mindful of the covenant, *
the promise made for a thousand generations:
9. the covenant made with Abraham, *
the oath sworn to Isaac,

10. established as a statute for Jacob, *
an everlasting covenant for Israel,
11. saying, "To you will I give the land of Canaan *
to be your allotted inheritance."
12. When they were few in number, *
of little account, and sojourners in the land,
13. wandering from nation to nation *
and from one kingdom to another, 14. The Lord let no one oppress them *
and rebuked rulers for their sake, 15. saying, "Do not touch my anointed *
and do my prophets no harm."
16. Then God called for a famine in the land * and destroyed the supply of bread.
17. The Lord sent a man before them, *
Joseph, who was sold as a slave
18. They bruised his feet in fetters; *
his neck they put in an iron collar.
19. Until his prediction came to pass, *
the word of the Lord tested him.
20. The king sent and released him; *
the ruler of the peoples set him free.
21. He set him as master over his household, *
as a ruler over all his possessions,

22. to instruct his princes according to his will *
and to teach his elders wisdom.

Part II

23. Israel came into Egypt, *
and Jacob became a sojourner in the land of Ham.

24. The Lord made this people exceedingly fruitful; *
making them stronger than their enemies;

25. whose heart God turned, so that they hated this
people, *
and dealt unjustly with the servants of God.

26. O Lord, you sent Moses your servant, *
and Aaron whom you had chosen.

27. They worked your signs among them, *
and portents in the land of Ham.

28. You sent darkness, and it grew dark; *
but the Egyptians rebelled against your words.

29. You turned their waters into blood * and caused their fish to die.

30. Their land was overrun by frogs, *
in the very chambers of their kings.

31. You spoke, and there came swarms of insects * and gnats within all their borders.

32. You gave them hailstones instead of rain, *
and flames of fire throughout their land.

- 33. You blasted their vines and their fig trees *
and shattered every tree in their country.
- 34. You spoke, and the locust came, *
and young locusts without number,
- 35. which ate up all the green plants in their land *
and devoured the fruit of their soil.
- 36. You struck down the firstborn of their land, *
the first fruits of all their strength.
- 37. You led out your people with silver and gold; *
in all their tribes there was not one that stumbled.
- 38. Egypt was glad of their going, *
because they were afraid of them.
- 39. You spread out a cloud for a covering *
and a fire to give light in the night season.
- 40. They asked, and quails appeared, *
and you satisfied them with bread from heaven.
- 41. You opened the rock, and water flowed, *
so the river ran in the dry places.
- 42. For you, O God, remembered your holy word *
and Abraham your servant.
- 43. So you led forth your people with gladness, *
your chosen with shouts of joy.
- 44. You gave your people the lands of the nations, *
and they took the fruit of others' toil,

45. that they might keep your statutes *
and observe your laws. Hallelujah!

Psalm 106

Part I

1. Hallelujah! Give thanks to the Lord who is good, *
whose mercy endures for ever.
2. Who can declare your mighty acts, O Lord, *
or show forth all your praise?
3. Happy are those who act with justice * and always do what is right!
4. Remember me, O Lord, with the favour you have for your people, *
and visit me with your saving help;
5. that I may see the prosperity of your elect and be glad with the gladness of your people, *
that I may glory with your inheritance.
6. We have sinned as our ancestors did; *
we have done wrong and dealt wickedly.
7. In Egypt they did not consider your marvellous works, nor remember the abundance of your love; *
they defied the Most High at the Red Sea.
8. But you saved them for your name's sake, *
to make your power known.

9. You rebuked the Red Sea, and it dried up, * and you led them through the deep as through a desert.
10. You saved them from the hand of those who hated
them *
and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
11. The waters covered their oppressors; *
not one of them was left.
12. Then they believed your words *
and sang you songs of praise.
13. But they soon forgot your deeds *
and did not wait for your counsel.
14. A craving seized them in the wilderness, *
and they put you to the test in the desert.
15. You gave them what they asked, *
but sent leanness into their soul.
16. They envied Moses in the camp, *
and Aaron, the holy one of the Lord.
17. The earth opened and swallowed Dathan *
and covered the company of Abiram.
18. Fire blazed up against their company, *
and flames devoured the wicked.

Part II

19. Israel made a bull-calf at Horeb *
and worshipped a molten image;
20. and so they exchanged their Glory *
for the image of an ox that feeds on grass.
21. They forgot you, their saviour, *
who had done great things in Egypt,
22. wonderful deeds in the land of Ham, *
and fearful things at the Red Sea.
23. So you would have destroyed them, had not Moses your chosen stood before you in the breach, *
to turn away your wrath from consuming them.
24. They refused the pleasant land *
and would not believe your promise.
25. They grumbled in their tents *
and would not listen to the voice of the Lord.
26. So you lifted your hand against them, *
to overthrow them in the wilderness,
27. to cast out their seed among the nations, *
and to scatter them throughout the lands.
28. They joined themselves to Baal-Peor *
and ate sacrifices offered to the dead.
29. They provoked you to anger with their actions, *
and a plague broke out among them.

- 30. Then Phinehas stood up and interceded, *
and the plague came to an end.
- 31. This was reckoned to him as righteousness *
throughout all generations for ever.
- 32. Again they provoked your anger at the waters of Meribah, *
so that you punished Moses because of them;
- 33. for they so embittered his spirit *
that he spoke rash words with his lips.
- 34. They did not destroy the peoples *
as the Lord had commanded them.
- 35. They intermingled with the heathen *
and learned their pagan ways,
- 36. So that they worshipped their idols, *
which became a snare to them.
- 37. They sacrificed their sons *
and their daughters to evil spirits.
- 38. They shed innocent blood, the blood of their sons and daughters, *
which they offered to the idols of Canaan, and the land was defiled with blood
- 39. Thus they were polluted by their actions *
and went whoring in their evil deeds.

- 40. Therefore your wrath was kindled against your people *
and you abhorred your inheritance.
- 41. You gave them over to the hand of the heathen, *
and those who hated them ruled over them.
- 42. Their enemies oppressed them, *
and they were humbled under their hand.
- 43. Many a time did you deliver them, but they rebelled through their own devices, *
and were brought down in their iniquity.
- 44. Nevertheless, you saw their distress, *
when you heard their lamentation.
- 45. You remembered your covenant with them *
and relented in accordance with your great mercy.
- 46. You caused them to be pitied *
by those who held them captive.
- 47. Save us, O Lord our God, and gather us from among the nations, *
that we may give thanks to your holy name and
glory in your praise.
- 48. Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, from everlasting and to everlasting; *
and let all the people say, "Amen!" Hallelujah!

Book Five

Psalm 107

Part I

1. Give thanks to the Lord who is good, *
and whose mercy endures for ever.
2. Let all those whom the Lord has redeemed proclaim *
that God redeemed them from the hand of the foe.
3. The Lord gathered them out of the lands; *
from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.
4. Some wandered in desert wastes; *
they found no way to a city where they might dwell.
5. They were hungry and thirsty; *
their spirits languished within them.
6. Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, *
who delivered them from their distress.
7. The Lord put their feet on a straight path *
to go to a city where they might dwell.
8. Let them give thanks to you, O Lord, for your mercy *
and the wonders you do for your children.
9. For you satisfy the thirsty *
and fill the hungry with good things.

- 10. Some sat in darkness and deep gloom, *
bound fast in misery and iron;
- 11. because they rebelled against the words of God *
and despised the counsel of the Most High.
- 12. So you humbled their spirits with hard labour; *
they stumbled, and there was none to help.
- 13. Then they cried to you in their trouble, *
and you delivered them from their distress.
- 14. You led them out of darkness and deep gloom *
and broke their bonds asunder.
- 15. Let them give thanks to you, O Lord, for your
mercy *
and the wonders you do for your children.
- 16. For you shatter the doors of bronze *
and break in two the iron bars.
- 17. Some were fools and took to rebellious ways; *
they were afflicted because of their sins.
- 18. They abhorred all manner of food *
and drew near to death's door.
- 19. Then they cried to you, O Lord, in their trouble, *
and you delivered them from their distress.
- 20. You sent forth your word and healed them *
and saved them from the grave.

- 21. Let them give thanks to you, O Lord, for your mercy *
and the wonders you do for your children.
- 22. Let them offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and tell of your acts with shouts of joy.
- 23. Some went down to the sea in ships *
and plied their trade in deep waters;
- 24. They beheld your works, O Lord, *
and your wonders in the deep.
- 25. Then you spoke, and a stormy wind arose, *
which tossed high the waves of the sea.
- 26. They mounted up to the heavens and fell back to
the depths; *
their hearts melted because of their peril.
- 27. They reeled and staggered like drunkards *
and were at their wits' end.
- 28. Then they cried to the Lord in their trouble, *
and you delivered them from their distress.
- 29. You stilled the storm to a whisper *
and quieted the waves of the sea.
- 30. Then were they glad because of the calm, *
and you brought them to the harbour they were bound for.

31. Let them give thanks to you, O Lord, for your mercy *
and the wonders you do for your children.

32. Let them exalt you in the congregation of the people * and praise you in the council of the elders.

Part II

33. The Lord changed rivers into deserts, *
and water-springs into thirsty ground,

34. a fruitful land into salt flats, *
because of the wickedness of those who dwell there.

35. The Lord changed deserts into pools of water * and dry land into water-springs,

36. settling the hungry there, *
and they founded a city to dwell in.

37. They sowed fields, and planted vineyards, *
and brought in a fruitful harvest.

38. The Lord blessed them, so that they increased greatly; *
and did not let their herds decrease.

39. Yet when they were diminished and brought low, *
through stress of adversity and sorrow,

40. (You pour contempt on princes *
and make them wander in trackless wastes)

41. The Lord lifted up the poor out of misery *
and multiplied their families like flocks of sheep.
42. The upright will see this and rejoice, *
but all wickedness will shut its mouth.
43. Whoever is wise will ponder these things, *
and consider well the mercies of the Lord.

Psalm 108

1. My heart is firmly fixed, O God, my heart is fixed; *
I will sing and make melody.
2. Wake up, my spirit; awake, lute and harp; *
I myself will waken the dawn.
3. I will confess you among the peoples, O Lord; *
I will sing praises to you among the nations.
4. For your loving-kindness is greater than the heavens, *
and your faithfulness reaches to the clouds.
5. Exalt yourself above the heavens, O God, *
and your glory over all the earth.
6. So that those who are dear to you may be delivered, *
save with your strong hand and answer me.
7. You spoke from your heavenly dwelling and said, *
“I will exult and parcel out Shechem; I will divide the
valley of Succoth.

8. Gilead is mine and Manasseh is mine; *
Ephraim is my helmet and Judah my sceptre.
9. Moab is my washbasin; on Edom I throw down my sandal to claim it, *
and over Philistia will I shout in triumph.”
10. Who will lead me into the strong city? *
Who will bring me into Edom?
11. Have you not cast us off, O God? *
You no longer go out, O God, with our armies.
12. Grant us your help against the enemy, *
for vain is the help of mortals. You no longer go out,
O God, with our armies.
13. With you we will do valiant deeds, *
and you shall tread our enemies under foot.

Psalm 109

1. Hold not your tongue, *
O God of my praise.
2. For the mouth of the wicked, the mouth of the deceitful, is opened against me; *
they speak to me with a lying tongue.
3. They encompass me with hateful words *
and fight against me without a cause.
4. Despite my love, they accuse me; *
but as for me, I pray for them.

5. They repay evil for good, *
and hatred for my love.
6. Set the wicked against them, *
and let an accuser stand at their side.
7. When they are judged, let them be found guilty, *
and let their appeal be in vain.
8. Let their days be few, *
and let another take their office.
9. Let their children be orphaned, *
and their spouses widowed.
10. Let their children be waifs and beggars; *
let them be driven from the ruins of their homes.
11. Let creditors seize everything they have; *
let strangers plunder their gains.
12. Let there be no one to show their kindness, *
and none to pity their orphaned children.
13. Let their descendants be destroyed, *
and their name be blotted out in the next generation.
14. Let the wickedness of their ancestors be remembered before the Lord, *
and their mothers' sin not be blotted out;
15. Let their sin be always before the Lord; *
but let their names be rooted out from the earth;

- 16. because they did not remember to show mercy, *
but persecuted the poor and needy and sought to kill the brokenhearted.
- 17. They loved cursing, let it come upon them; *
they took no delight in blessing, let it depart from
them.
- 18. They put on cursing like a garment, *
let it soak into their bodies like water and into their bones like oil;
- 19. Let it be to them like the cloak which they wrap around themselves, *
and like the belt that they wear continually.
- 20. Let this be the recompense from the Lord to my accusers, *
and to those who speak evil against me.
- 21. But you, O Lord my God, oh, deal with me according to your name; *
for your tender mercy's sake, deliver me.
- 22. For I am poor and needy, *
and my heart is wounded within me.
- 23. I have faded away like a shadow when it
lengthens; *
I am shaken off like a locust.
- 24. My knees are weak through fasting, *
and my flesh is wasted and gaunt.

25. I have become a reproach to them; *
they see and shake their heads.
26. Help me, O Lord my God; *
save me for your mercy's sake.
27. Let them know that this is your hand, *
that you, O Lord, have done it.
28. They may curse, but you will bless; *
let those who rise up against me be put to shame,
and your servant will rejoice.
29. Let my accusers be clothed with disgrace *
and wrap themselves in their shame as in a cloak.
30. I will give great thanks to the Lord with my mouth; *
in the midst of the multitude will I praise God;
31. because the Lord stands at the side of the needy, *
to save their lives from those who would condemn
them.

in the beauty of holiness have I begotten you, like dew from the womb of the morning.”
4. The Lord has sworn and will not recant: *
”You are a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.”

works *
in giving them the lands of the nations.

justice; *
all your commandments are sure.

because they are done in truth and equity.

those who act accordingly have a good understanding; the praise of the Lord endures for ever.

and have great delight in the divine commandments!

and their righteousness will last for ever.

4. Light shines in the darkness for the upright; *
the righteous are merciful and full of compassion.
5. It is good for them to be generous in lending * and to manage their affairs with justice.
6. For they will never be shaken; *
the righteous will be kept in everlasting remembrance.
7. They will not be afraid of any evil rumours; *
their heart is right; they put their trust in the Lord.
8. Their heart is established and will not shrink, *
until they see their desire upon their enemies.
9. They have given freely to the poor, * and their righteousness stands fast for ever; they will hold up their head with honour.
10. The wicked will see it and be angry; they will gnash their teeth and pine away; *
the desires of the wicked will perish.

Psalm 113

1. Hallelujah! Give praise, you servants of the Lord; *
praise the name of the Lord.
2. Let the name of the Lord be blessed, *
from this time forth for evermore.
3. From the rising of the sun to its going down *
let the name of the Lord be praised.

4. The Lord is high above all nations, *
and is glorious above the heavens.
5. Who is like the Lord our God, *
who sits enthroned on high,
6. but stoops to behold *
the heavens and the earth?
7. The Lord takes up the weak out of the dust *
and lifts up the poor from the ashes.
8. The Lord sets them with the rulers, *
with the rulers of this people,
9. making the woman of a childless house *
to be a joyful mother of children.

Psalm 114

1. Hallelujah! When Israel came out of Egypt, *
the house of Jacob from a people of strange speech,
2. Judah became the sanctuary of the Lord * and Israel the dominion of God.
3. The sea beheld it and fled; *
Jordan turned and went back.
4. The mountains skipped like rams, *
and the little hills like young sheep.
5. What ailed you, O sea, that you fled? *
O Jordan, that you turned back?

6. You mountains, that you skipped like rams? *
You little hills like young sheep?
7. Tremble, O earth, at the presence of the Lord, *
at the presence of the God of Jacob,
8. who turned the hard rock into a pool of water *
and flint-stone into a flowing spring.

Psalm 115

1. Not to us, O Lord, not to us, but to your name give glory; *
because of your love and because of your
faithfulness.
2. Why should the heathen say, *
"Where then is their God?"
3. Our God is in heaven; *
whatever God wills to do comes to pass.
4. Their idols are silver and gold, *
the work of human hands.
5. They have mouths, but they cannot speak; *
eyes have they, but they cannot see;
6. they have ears, but they cannot hear; *
noses, but they cannot smell;
7. they have hands, but they cannot feel; feet, but they cannot walk; *
they make no sound with their throat.

who is your help and your shield.

who is your help and your shield.
- 11. You who fear the Lord, trust in the Lord; *
who is your help and your shield.

you and your children after you.

who has heard the voice of my supplication,

grave took hold of me; *
I came to grief and sorrow.
4. Then I called upon the name of the Lord: *
“O Lord, I pray you, save my life.”
5. Gracious is the Lord and righteous; *
our God is full of compassion.

I was brought very low, and the Lord helped me.
7. Turn again to your rest, O my soul, *
for the Lord has treated you well.
8. For you, O Lord, have rescued my life from death, *
my eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling.
9. I will walk in the presence of the Lord *
in the land of the living.
10. I believed, even when I said, *
“I have been brought very low.”
11. In my distress I said, *
“No one can be trusted.”

12. How shall I repay you, O Lord, *
for all the good things you have done for me?
13. I will lift up the cup of salvation *
and call upon your name.
14. I will fulfil my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all the people.
15. Precious in your sight, O Lord * is the death of your servants.
16. O Lord, I am your servant; *
I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
you have freed me from my bonds.
17. I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving * and call upon the name of the Lord.
18. I will fulfil my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all the people of God.
19. In the courts of the house of the Lord, *
in the midst of you, O Jerusalem. Hallelujah!

" The mercy of the Lord endures for ever."

who answered by setting me free.
6. The Lord is at my side, therefore I will not fear; *
what can anyone do to me?
7. The Lord is at my side to help me; *
I will triumph over those who hate me.
8. It is better to rely on the Lord *
than to put any trust in flesh.
9. It is better to rely on the Lord *
than to put any trust in rulers.
10. All the ungodly encompass me; *
in the name of the Lord I will repel them.
11. They hem me in, they hem me in on every side; *
in the name of the Lord I will repel them.

- 12. They swarm about me like bees; they blaze like a fire of thorns; *
in the name of the Lord I will repel them.
- 13. I was pressed so hard that I almost fell, *
but the Lord came to my help.

6. Let them be like grass upon the housetops, *
which withers before it can be plucked;

Lord."

testimonies that I shall teach them, *
their children will sit upon your throne for evermore."

here will I dwell, for I delight in it.
15. I will surely bless its provisions, *
and satisfy its poor with bread.
16. I will clothe its priests with salvation, *
and its faithful people will rejoice and sing.

of Zion. *
For there the Lord has ordained the blessing: life for

you have covered my head in the day of battle.
8. Do not grant the desires of the wicked, O Lord, *
nor let their evil plans prosper.
9. Let not those who surround me lift up their heads; *
let the evil of their lips overwhelm them.
10. Let hot burning coals fall upon them; *
let them be cast into the mire, never to rise up again.
11. A slanderer shall not be established on the earth, *
and evil shall hunt down the lawless.

Let me not be occupied in wickedness with evildoers, nor eat of their choice foods.

not the oil of the unrighteous anoint my head; *
for my prayer is continually against their wicked deeds.

path; *
in the way wherein I walk they have hidden a trap
for me.

I have no place to flee to, and no one cares for me.
5. I cry out to you, O Lord; *
I say, "You are my refuge, my portion in the land of the living."

my heart within me is desolate.
5. I remember the time past; I muse upon all your deeds; *
I consider the works of your hands.

my soul gasps to you like a thirsty land.

do not hide your face from me or I shall be like those who go down to the Pit.

show me the road that I must walk, for I lift up my soul to you.

our days are like a passing shadow.

touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
6. Hurl the lightning and scatter them; *
shoot out your arrows and rout them.
7. Stretch out your hand from on high; *
rescue me and deliver me from the great waters,
from the hand of foreign peoples,
8. for their mouths speak deceitfully *
and their hand is raised in falsehood.

I will play to you on a ten-stringed lyre.
